DEBATE REACHES ITS LAST STAGE

Naval Bill Once More Takes Attention of Members at Ottawa—Clause Two Still Under Consideration.

SUB-AMENDMENT BY MR. GERMAN

Minister of Finance Substantiates His Quotation From Speech of Mr. Churchill—Premier Is Confident.

OTTAWA, May 6.—What is probably the last stage of the Naval Bill discussion in the Commons was entered upon at 5 o'clock, when the House went into committee of the whole to consider Clause 2 of the bill. The clause authorizes the expenditure of thirty-five million dollars for the purpose of Imperial defence.

An amendment moved by Mr. Hugh Guthrie, calling for the expenditure of the money in Canada, which was not disposed of when consideration of the bill was put over, was still standing. Today a sub-amendment was added by Mr. William German, of Welland, to the effect that, in order to keep the expenditure under control of Parliament, the sum of $35,000,000 should be voted in annual instalments, as required for naval construction.

Minister White's Justification

Upon the House going into committee on the bill, Hon. W. T. White, Minister of Finance, resumed the debate, confining his remarks to an explanation and justification in regard to his quotation from a speech made by Winston Churchill, in the British House of Commons, which reference had been challenged by the member for Red Deer (Dr. Clark) as a "garbled" report.

Hon. Mr. White referred to his speech made on the eighth of April last, in which he had quoted Mr. Winston Churchill as saying that the Canadian ships were absolutely necessary for the whole world defence of the British Empire from the beginning of 1916 onward. Then he read from Hansard the assertion made by Dr. Clark as to the newspaper report used by the Minister being a garbled one.

At this juncture, the member for Red Deer entered the chamber, and, after listening for a few minutes, he asked the Finance Minister if he wished to contend that the quotation which he (Mr. White) had given from a cablegram produced in the house on April 8 was the exact wording of Mr. Churchill's utterance.

In answer to this question, Hon. Mr. White produced the Hansard report of the British House of Commons for March 31, in which was reported the speech of the First Lord of the Admiralty. He quoted the following passage: "It is necessary, however, to make it clear that the three ships now under discussion in Canada are absolutely required from 1916 onwards for the whole world defence of the British Empire. Apart altogether from the needs of Great Britain in home waters, they would play a real part in the defence of the Empire, and if they failed, a gap would be open to fill which further sacrifice would have to be made without undue delay by others."

Mr. German's Contention

Mr. German, of Welland, said that whether or not Mr. Churchill used the words attributed to him, the situation which exists in Canada is not affected. The Opposition agreed that Canada should take her place as one of the dominant Dominions of the Empire. The Opposition stands ready to vote $35,000,000 or any other sum in aid of naval defence, but they claim that it should be for the purpose of establishing a navy

LAKE GRAIN SHIPMENTS

Over Twenty Million Bushels Sent From Twin Cities Since Opening of Navigation

FORT WILLIAM, May 6.—According to figures issued by the Dominion Grain Commission, over twenty million bushels of grain have been shipped by water from the Twin Cities at the head of the lakes since the opening of navigation, and at present there are over 21,000,000 bushels still in the elevators. Between three and four hundred cars are arriving daily. Grain men, however, do not fear a blockade, and believe that all the grain will be out before the year's crops begin to flow in.

The figures supplied show that since navigation opened 15,312,488 bushels of wheat, 2,223,439 bushels of oats, 1,298,812 bushels of barley and 2,276,590 bushels of flax have been shipped.

From September 1, 1912, to the end of April of this year local elevators received 84,119,123 bushels of wheat, 21,510,327 bushels of oats, 7,416,365 bushels of barley and 10,195,328 bushels flax.

The total amount of grain stored in the elevators at present is: Wheat, 10,555,193; oats, 6,134,490; barley, 1,944,496; flax, 3,018,010. Last year at this time the figures were: Wheat, 16,222,404; oats, 3,827,883; barley, 7,904,001; flax, 1,969,243.

ARCHBISHOP ON SCHOOLS

His Grace of St. Boniface Issues Pronouncement Dealing With Changes Made in Law

WINNIPEG, Man., May 6.—Archbishop Langevin has issued an important pronouncement upon the school question in the form of a letter to be read in the Catholic churches. A portion of the letter was read at high mass in St. Boniface Cathedral on Sunday by Monsignor Dugas, vicar-general, and the remainder is to be read on a future occasion. The letter is an exposition of His Grace's views on the school issue.

His Grace in the letter laments that the bill enlarging the boundaries of Manitoba did not safeguard the rights of the minority. The Coldwell amendments were, he said, the result of negotiations following the passage of the bill at Ottawa. It is pointed out that acceptance by the Winnipeg school board of the proposition made by Mr. Coldwell would be a partial concession and would not be regarded as a settlement in full.

The Roblin Government is commended for having given the French Catholics their own normal school, three inspectors of their own language and faith, the right, in the French schools, to employ teachers in religious garb and to keep the crucifix upon the walls of the school. These are declared to be "appreciable services."

Commendation, though less specific, is also passed upon the Saskatchewan Government. The letter closes with a declaration of unalterable hostility to national schools, a state university and compulsory education.

FOUR BURNED TO DEATH

Fatality Occurs at National Transcontinental Line Construction Camp—Tragedy Is Mysterious

QUEBEC, May 6.—Four men lost their lives and two others were probably fatally injured in a fire at residence No. 45, on the line of the National Transcontinental Railway, on Sunday night.

The victims are three brothers named Lacroix, of LaTuque, and Hamel, a timekeeper, who was visiting the Lacroix brothers for the night.

The names of the two injured men cannot be ascertained, as they are still unconscious, and no one in the vicinity knows them. The coroner of Three Rivers is on the ground waiting until the injured men regain consciousness to ascertain how the affair occurred.

WOMEN'S WORK UNDER REVIEW

Reports From Various Departments Laid Before National Council—Improved Class of Immigrants Needed.

MONTREAL, Que., May 6.—At the luncheon tendered the National Council of Women greetings from the civic authorities were extended to the officers and delegates by Madame Lavelle, Madame Guerin, Madame Lajoie and Mrs. Sanford, treasurer of the International Council. Immediately afterward the council attended the child welfare exhibition and the local council milk station. Addresses were given by Mrs. Smillie and Mrs. Lockhart.

The evening session was devoted to the suffrage question. The chair was taken by Prof. C. Derrick. The speakers were Mrs. Leather, of Toronto, and Mrs. Snowdon, of England.

The latest addition to the suffrage societies of the Dominion is the Montreal Association, organized a few weeks ago with Prof. Carrie Derrick as president and several men sympathizers as members of the official board. Mrs. Derrick said that for years the suffrage members of the National Council had tried to get the council to stand for equal rights for men and women. At last they had triumphed.

For the last three years the National Council has endorsed the suffrage movement, and, although there are many anti-suffragettes within its ranks, their sympathies are for obtaining votes for women.

Ballot and Home.

Mrs. Lewis gave a powerful address which appealed directly to the very large audience. Dealing with the work which awaits the coming of woman into the field of politics, Mrs. Lewis touched upon woman's sphere, and denied indignantly that the ballot would in any way interfere with the homes of Canadian women.

Mrs. Snowdon described England as the storm centre for the suffrage movement. The women have been working in Great Britain for over a century for suffrage. She gave an eloquent description of the movement in England, and the applause which marked her words showed the sympathy of the audience.

The name of hostels will be changed to that of residential clubs for wage earners.

That Canada is not getting the kind of immigrants desired was brought out in the discussion following the report of the committee on employment for women.

An appeal for a better class of girls for domestics in Canada was made. A suggestion was made to encourage the emigration of young boys from England, to be trained to be useful in homes.

NOT FAMILIAR WITH STRATEGY

Criticism of Sir Wilfrid Laurier's Declarations in His Toronto Speech by London Daily Telegraph.

STRATEGIC PRINCIPLES HAVE NOT CHANGED

Paper Suggests That Admiralty Should More Frequently Confer With Ministers of Overseas Dominions.

LONDON, May 6.—Commenting on Sir Wilfrid Laurier's speech at Toronto last night, The Daily Telegraph this morning says: "When the leader of the Opposition in the Canadian House asserts that Defence, like charity, begins at home, it is difficult to reconcile his declaration with the recognition of the world peace which the British navy has assured for the Empire in the past, or with any Imperial conception of co-operation for the future."

"It is apparent," continues The Telegraph, "that in dealing with naval affairs, Sir Wilfrid is moving in an unfamiliar atmosphere, using terms of strategic significance which he does not understand. The Canadian ex-Premier is stated to have remarked that Great Britain, in pursuance of her new naval strategy, has concentrated her fleets in home waters, whereas she had formerly vessels in every sea.'

"There is no new naval strategy," says The Telegraph. "The strategic principles underlying the disposition of the British fleets have undergone no change. Owing to developments on the continent of Europe, Great Britain has today more than one sea frontier. It is necessary to build up a considerable naval force in the Mediterranean, which is a vital artery of Imperial relations and Imperial trade—vital to Canadian interests, to Canadian credit and Canadian commerce.

Suggests General Conference

The Telegraph then throws out a suggestion and says: "The discussion of naval problems in the Dominions points to the absence of unity of thought between the Admiralty and the statesmen of the overseas Dominions. The only remedy for this increasing confusion of word and act is a conference of the Admiralty with the overseas leaders. The mistake committed last Summer was in dealing with Mr. Borden in isolation. There should have been a conclave of the Empire. Only thus could the late unhappy incidents in Canada have been prevented. The time was then ripe for a free and full understanding and full interchange of views between the Imperial Ministers and their naval and military experts on the one hand and the responsible Ministers for the Overseas states on the other. The opportunity will occur again as soon as the Naval Bill has passed the Dominion House of Commons."

In conclusion The Telegraph declares that the whole Empire will suffer in prestige if the Imperial aid offered by the Canadian Government is after all withheld by the vote of the Senate, as Sir Wilfrid Laurier's speech suggests. The mere possibility of such an affront to a responsible Government and to the idea it cherishes ought to be avoided at all costs.

Canal Workers Killed

PANAMA, May 6.—Four West Indians employed on canal construction work, were killed today by the collapse of a concrete culvert.

FOR HANDLING OF CARGO

Agreement Between Shipping Federation and Maritime Association Before Convention

LOS ANGELES, Cal., May 6.—An agreement between the Puget Sound Shipping Federation and the Maritime Association of British Columbia, involving the handling of cargo by longshoremen, is before the Pacific Coast District Convention of the International Longshoremen's Association, which was opened at San Pedro today.

President T. V. Connors, executive head of the International organization at Buffalo, brought news of the agreement upon his arrival here today from Seattle. He would not make public the details of the agreement until after he had presented it to the convention for acceptance or rejection, but said it was satisfactory to himself.

The convention will be in session all week. Delegates are here from all parts between Prince Rupert, B. C. and San Diego, California.

SULTAN TIRED OF THRONE

Constantinople Report Represents Him as Anxious to Abdicate—Possible Successors

LONDON, May 6.—The Daily Chronicle's Constantinople correspondent wires: "Rumors are very frequent here that the Sultan has several times of late insisted on abdicating. The heir to the throne, Prince Youshuf Izzeddine, however, it is said, maintains that he cannot step into the throne at this difficult juncture, and holds that a change at the present time would be highly unwise.

"The Government dare not entrust the throne to any one else. If, however, Kiamil Pasha returns to power—a not improbable contingency—common report has it that he favors Prince Vahid Eddine Effendi.

"The young Turks would like Prince Medjid Effendi, who is third in the order to succession. He is high minded and erudite, but not a very strong man.

"The enlightened section of the population is beginning to despair of salvation of the country. Mahmoud Shefket Pasha has forbidden Kiamil Pasha and Ferid Pasha to re-enter the country.

"The general impression is that something is happening behind the scenes and that serious events may happen at any moment."

EMPIRE TRADE RELATIONS

New Zealand and Australian Ministers of Customs Speak Strongly for Reciprocity

SYDNEY, N. S. W., May 6.—Before his departure for New Zealand, Hon. F. M. S. Fisher, Minister of Customs for New Zealand, said that whilst what was called the crimson blood of kinsmen was a very satrong bond of steel, reciprocal trade was necessary to keep the different portions of the Empire together.

Speaking before the Dominions Trade Commission, Hon. Frank G. Tudor, Australian Minister of Customs, said there would be no difficulty in making preference and empire consideration capable of being placed on a uniform basis without entailing uniform rates of duty.

The Herald today is of the opinion that the plea for more adequate naval organization in the Pacific becomes greater by the immediate stimulus which will inevitably be given to trade across the Pacific by the opening of the Panama Canal and a reciprocal trade agreement between Canada and Australia.

IN OPERATION BY SEPTEMBER

Managing Director of British Syndicate Speaks of Contract With Canada—Long Distance Test Arranged.

LONDON, May 6.—H. W. Baxendale, managing director of the Universal Radio Syndicate, which controls the Poulsen system of wireless telegraphy here, today said that although the contract which had been arranged with the Canadian Government for a wireless service between Great Britain and British North America provided that the service must be in operation within twelve months, he had no doubt it would be in operation by September of this year.

The site for the Poulsen station on this side of the Atlantic, said Mr. Baxendale, has already been secured at Ballyounion, near the mouth of the River Shannon, while two or three stations on the other side of the Atlantic were now under consideration. As to the efficiency of the Poulsen system over long distances, the Universal Radio Syndicate, Mr. Baxendale added, had agreed to a test between Arlington, Washington, United States, and a certain European station, a distance of over 3,500 miles, which certainly should be sufficient to satisfy the most skeptical as to the merits of the Poulsen system for long distance transmission.

The distance over which the syndicate proposed to operate the Canadian service was 2,400 miles. It had been incorrectly reported in Ottawa cables, the managing director pointed out, that they had contracted to receive and dispatch messages at the rate of 400 words per minute. It should be 400 letters per minute, or eighty five-letter words a minute.

As to the tolls, Mr. Baxendale stated that they proposed to charge eightpence per word for code messages and four-pence per word for plain messages. Both classes of messages would be treated as urgent, and there would be no such thing as "deferred" messages in connection with the service.

Heavy Deficits for France

PARIS, May 6.—Analyzing the budget report of the French Senate prepared by Senator Ameledon, The Temps says that French deficits in 1912 and 1913, together with her treasury notes of $38,000,000 during June and September, compelled the Government to find $160,000,000 more than the receipts, to meet the obligations of 1912, in which were included $220,000,000 made necessary by the projected three years' military service law. These deficits, the newspaper says, are in spite of the increased tax receipts and fresh taxes totalling $150,000,000, and the Government's net income from the tobacco monopoly in 1907 amounting to $112,000,000.

THE LATE BISHOP CRIDGE

POPE PIUS' HEALTH GOOD

Pontiff Has Entirely Recovered and Is Again Able to Give Audiences—Celebrates Mass

ROME, May 5.—Pope Pius has entirely recovered from his recent illness. Cardinal Falconio, formerly papal delegate at Ottawa, found the Pope today in excellent health, bright, clear headed, keenly interested in affairs and eager to discuss all subjects of the hour.

Cardinal Falconio was to have been received by the Pope on April 7, the day the pontiff fell ill. Of necessity the audience was postponed. The cardinal received an invitation to visit the Vatican today and was greatly pleased that the Pope was in better health than when he saw him in the beginning of April.

"My seclusion was pushed to such an extent," said the Pope, "that I was almost prevented from speaking with my own sisters. Likewise I was dissuaded from saying mass, but this morning, without asking the doctors' permission, I celebrated the divine sacrifice."

The Osservatore Romano, the Vatican newspaper, publishes this morning the following official statement in regard to the health of the Pope: "Foreign newspapers have given inexact news about the health of His Holiness, which, although excellent considering his recent illness, obliged him to follow a special regime. Therefore the Pontiff has neither gone into the Vatican gardens nor is he about to resume his audiences of pilgrims, thus following the instructions of the doctors."

JUDGMENT AGAINST BANK

Chief Justice of Alberta Gives Decision in Great West Lumber Company Case

CALGARY, May 6.—The climax to one of the most important cases ever before the Supreme Court here came up today, when Chief Justice Harvey ruled that the Northern Crown Bank had violated the Bank Act through carrying on the business of the Great West Lumber Company.

The case arose out of the action of the bank in trying to obtain judgment against the company for nearly six hundred thousand dollars which had been advanced in various ways. The bulk of the money was advanced after the bank had acquired control of the company, and Judge Harvey allowed only the claim for $79,000 loaned before this control was obtained.

His Lardship ruled that the bank in taking over the business had violated section 76 of the Bank Act. It is reported this afternoon that the case will be taken to the Privy Council by the bank.

DEATH SUMMONS BISHOP CRIDGE

End Came Very Peacefully Yesterday Morning to One of the Outstanding Figures Among Western Pioneers.

Bishop Cridge died at 5 a. m. yesterday. In spite of his advanced age—he was ninety-five years old—few were aware that his condition for the past few days had been such as would cause alarm. He had been slightly indisposed for the past three weeks, but it was only last Wednesday that his family became alarmed. As the days went on he grew gradually weaker and it was seen that the end was in sight. He rallied slightly on Monday morning, but it was not to last. In the afternoon his family sang for him his favorite hymn, "The Head That Once Was Crowned With Thorns," and he tried to join in, but his voice was too weak. He grew weaker throughout the night, finally passing into a state of unconsciousness, from which he never rallied.

His Last Words

Almost the last words of the venerable bishop were "I determined I would not know anything but Christ the Son of God." This he repeated twice, and those who heard him knew that for the last time he was trying to impress upon them his unshaken belief in the divinity of Christ, upon which he had preached so many sermons throughout his life, mindful of modern tendencies to disbelief.

And to his old Chinaman, who came to his bedside to bid him farewell, he said: "Do you believe in the Lord Jesus Christ?"—anxious even up till the very last to win souls for his Master.

The bishop entered into his rest at his old home, "Marifield," corner Cridge and Government Streets. He died in the early dawn of a beautiful day, fit for the passing of a beautiful soul. The gardens around the old house wherein he lay asleep were fragrant with the scent of white hawthorn and budding

SUFFRAGE BILL MEETS DEFEAT

Motion to Reject It Carried in House of Commons by a Majority of 47—Irish Vote Against Measure.

CAUSE IS INJURED BY CRIMINAL ACTS

Premier Asquith Speaks in Opposition to Bill and Sir Edward Grey in Its Support Other Speakers.

LONDON, May 6.—The fate of the women's suffrage bill was sealed tonight by the votes of more than fifty Irish Nationalists, who voted against it. The bill whereby it was sought to enfranchise 6,000,000 women was rejected b ya majority of forty-seven. The vote stood 266 to 219.

Whether there is any conclusion that that the present Parliament will pass a bill of more limited character may be doubted. Possibly the Nationalists fear that if they allow a woman's franchise bill to pass the second reading it will lead to a parliamentary struggle, which would not unlikely end in the dissolution of Parliament before the Home Rule Bill becomes a law.

Furthermore, the debate today proved that the militant policy of the suffragettes has done the cause great harm as far as Parliament is concerned. The conciliation bill of last session was rejected byp a small majority compared with the Dickinson bill, which was under discussion today, and previous bills, giving some measure of enfranchisement to women have passed the second reading although they never survived subsequent stages.

Hurt by Outrages

Recent police disclosures of acts of incendiarism planned by the militants, far surpassing in magnitude anything heretofore attempted, and the burning of St. Catharine's Church at Hatcham today undoubtedly influenced many members to vote against the bill.

The figures of the division showing the defeat of the bill were greeted with a great cheer from all sides of the House.

The debate, which on Monday proceeded with extraordinary apathy, was today characterized by intensity and brilliant speeches. The House was crowded, and was pervaded with an atmosphere of electrical excitement. The stranger's galleries were packed, and many anxious faces peered from behind the grill-guarded gallery devoted to women.

Neither Andrew Bonar Law, leader of the Opposition, nor A. J. Balfour voted in this division. Among the ministers who voted against the bill were Premier Asquith, Reginald McKenna, Lewis Harcourt, J. E. B. Seely, Winston Spencer Churchill and C. E. Hobhouse.

The supporters of the bill included Sir Edward Grey, David Lloyd George, Sir Rufus Isaacs, Augustine Birrell, Sidney Buxton, C. F. G. Masterman, Sir J. A. Simon and F. D. Ackland.

Premier in Opposition

When the debate was resumed this afternoon Premier Asquith defended the Government's course, saying it was consistent with the best traditions of British statesmanship.

He regretted that he found himself at variance with his colleagues on the suffrage question, and greatly as he would regret severing himself from the prosecution of other great causes, he would lay down his office if his colleagues ever suggested that they did not feel justified in following a govern-

ANOTHER SERUM IS DISCOVERED

Researches of Berlin Bacteriologist Result in Development of New Possible Cure for Various Diseases.

LONDON, May 6.—"At the moment I claim nothing for my serum, but once I am sure of its beneficial action I shall gladly give it to humanity." Thus spoke Dr. Frederick Mehnarto, the young but learned German bacteriologist, whose reported discovery of a serum that cures tuberculosis, malaria and leprosy, has created great interest in London today, and said:

"I shall only say this much. My serum involves a totally new principle which was unknown to medical science hitherto. The employment of the serum is only in the experimental stage, but I have several patients in various centres of Europe who are undergoing treatment with it. These tests have been in progress several months, but it will be some time before I can announce definite results. I repeat that at the moment I am extremely hopeful for my serum."

Dr. Mehnarto seemed annoyed that his researches have been commented upon in the papers, as it seems he assumed the attitude that medical ethics demand professional secrecy and non-commercialism.

Dislikes Publicity

"I have nothing to say," was his first answer. "Publicity will do no good at this time. When the tests of my serum are completed the full results will be published in the medical journals. I do not wish to find myself in the same situation as Dr. Friedmann because of undue publicity.

"Anything said now might cause a great deal of harm because of causing harrowing disappointment. Many misleading articles regarding my serum have appeared in the newspapers of Europe, and to offset them I have had to issue a disclaimer in The London Lancet."

Dr. Mehnarto has returned to Berlin, where he passes most of his time. Some of the most distinguished experts on tuberculosis and bacteriologists are testing Mehnarto's serum. They approached the tests in a hostile spirit, but, it is reported, they have come to regard it as of remarkable efficiency in some diseases. They call it "contra toxin" to mark its characteristic differences from any other serum.

Dr. Mehnarto discovered the serum in the Belgian Congo, where he worked with Dr. Kochin in the study of the deadly sleeping sickness. Whatever disease is treated by contra toxin, the effect is to stimulate leucocytis in the blood, which destroys disease germs and restores the blood to its normal complement. It is varied for the treatment of different diseases, according to creditable report, by adding to it a serum extracted from different animals which are naturally immune from the disease under treatment.

STRIKE RIOT IN SYRACUSE

Demonstration by Building Laborers Ends in Clash With Police—Many Men Wounded

SYRACUSE, N.Y., May 6.—Determined efforts are being made here tonight to settle the strike of building laborers, which developed today a series of riots, in which twenty-five persons, nine of them policemen, were wounded.

The strikers met this afternoon with Cesare Sconfetti, Italian consular agent at Rochester, and appointed a committee to wait on the employers with a view of arbitrating the wage dispute. The contractors have signified their willingness.

Order was restored with the first negotiations for a settlement, and the three local companies of state militia, which had been called out, had nothing to do.

The strike started last Thursday, when the demand of 2,500 laborers and hodcarriers for increased wages was rejected. The strikers, mostly foreigners, had paraded the streets daily, and this morning 500 attempted to force workmen from a structure in front of the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, in the heart of the city. Policemen and a fire company were rushed to the scene, and were greeted with a volley of bricks, stones and clubs. The police, to frighten the strikers, fired their revolvers into the air, but when the rioters continued their charge, the officers fired at the strikers, injuring a number.

The police took twenty-five prisoners, ten of whom were hurt, three seriously. In the fight, one policeman's skull was fractured, and his condition is serious. Eight other officers were cut and bruised. Giuseppe Vasta was shot through the abdomen, and his recovery is not expected. Martin Lule, a spectator, was shot in the shoulder.

Several other clashes occurred, in which several persons were slightly injured.

Honors for Aviators.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—Three workers in the field of aviation, one dead, the other two living, were honored here today by the Smithsonian Institute which unveiled a tablet to the memory of the late Dr. Samuel Pierpont Langley, inventor of the first heavier-than-air machine to fly. It presented the Langley medals to a Frenchman, Gustave Eiffel, for his valuable experiments in aerodromics and to Glenn H. Curtiss, the young American who has been leader in hydro-aeroplane invention. As M. Eiffel could not be present, the French Ambassador, M. Jusserand, received his medal.

EXPEDITION TO GREENLAND

Message From Thorshaven Tells of Success of Exploration Party Led by Knud Rasmussen

COPENHAGEN, May 6.—A message from Thorshaven, Faroe Islands, announces the success of Knud Rasmussen's Greenland expedition, which returned there yesterday after a three years' absence.

At Peary Land the Danish explorer found large numbers of seals and musk oxen, which provided ample supplies. Where the Peary channel was supposed to be he found a large tract of land free of ice. Game was abundant in that section, and the party halted for a month before starting on the return journey of over six hundred miles, which was covered at an average rate of thirty-one miles a day.

Rasmussen depended entirely on his Eskimo outfit and took with him no tinned provisions.

Referendum on Suffrage

MADISON, Wis., May 6.—The Wisconsin Assembly concurred today in the Glenn woman suffrage bill, which provides for a referendum on the issue in 1914. The measure now goes to the governor. Although he personally is opposed to equal suffrage, the governor is expected to sign the bill.

VICTORIA PROMISED A NEW INDUSTRY

Will Be Distributing Centre for Denman Island Sandstone—Property Purchased for $100,000 by Syndicate.

In a comparatively short time the city of Victoria will be in a position to supply the finest quality of sandstone to be found this side of Nova Scotia in large quantities and with ready dispatch. The source of supply is Denman Island, situated off from Union Bay, and the operators are now looking for a wharf site in this city to which the material can be shipped and landed with the greatest facility. Mr. T. F. Paterson, of Vancouver, nephew of the Lieutenant-Governor of the Province, is head of the party which has just purchased the Island from the holding company, known as the Denman Island Stone Company, and he arrived in the city yesterday to make complete arrangements for the purchase of a waterfront site for wharfage and yardage purposes.

The purchase of the Island involved the sum of $100,000. But from the reports of engineers upon the quality and quantity of the material in the quarry the promoters believe that they have made a splendid bargain, and not only a bargain for themselves, but for the building industry generally on the Coast for, as Mr. Paterson pointed out, the lack of such material has led to serious delay in the construction of important blocks both in Victoria and Vancouver during the past few years, and the consequent loss of capital must have been tremendous.

Is Splendid Investment

"I regard it as a splendid investment," said Mr. Paterson, "and I look to the development of the property to contribute largely to the more general use of such material as it contains in the buildings of the Western cities. In the first place we will be able to supply this sandstone much cheaper than it can now be secured from the East or from Tacoma, which latter is the nearest point of supply on this Coast, and in addition to that excellent factor, we will always have it on tap, so that there need be no delay in delivery. We intend to erect a wharf in Victoria as soon as we can secure a suitable site, and of course we will establish an extensive yard in connection with that where we will have the material dressed and prepared for buildings of all conditions and sizes.

"Our first move will be the putting in of extensive machinery to operate the quarry, and in that connection I may say that we have already sent East for a number of steam channelers. These will be here in about two weeks' time, when we propose to start active work in the quarry. We have a staff of men there already getting things in shape pending the arrival of machinery, and when it arrives on the scene and is installed we will commence production right away. Talking about production reminds me that in the reports of our experts on the subject there is the startling information that there is material enough in sight at the present time to last for the next four thousand years at the rate of production carried on last year, and in order to get something like the proper basis of calculation I may say that this stone was used extensively in Vancouver and other places. The Vancouver schools are very partial to this kind of stone, nearly all of them being constructed with it; and I am hopeful that we may be able to obtain a similar privilege in the city of Victoria.

Distributing Centre Here

"For the city of Victoria also I think our operations should mean something. We propose to have our distributing centre here, and that necessarily implies that we shall employ much labor, just how much I cannot yet say. At all events it will be something new for this city, and I am sanguine that in time, with the acceleration of building activity here and in Vancouver, not to mention the various other points on the Coast which we hope to supply, it will be extensive also. From our information on the nature of the stone it is regarded as of the very finest quality, and we will be in a position to furnish it at a much cheaper rate than at present prevails.

"With the cheapening of [illegible] I believe that the use of it will [illegible] tremendously, and that people [illegible] more solidly in the future [illegible] stances have allowed them [illegible] past."

Mr. Paterson is the [illegible] company, and Mr. W. [illegible] president.

SUFFRAGETTES DESTROY CHURCH

Burning of Fine Edifice in Hatcham Is Credited to Criminal Militants—Bomb Explosion Is Prevented.

LONDON, May 6.—While the members of the House of Commons were entering Parliament this afternoon to discuss the Woman Suffrage Bill, newsboys thrust extras at them announcing what seems to be the most destructive work the militant suffragettes have yet accomplished. St. Catherine's Church at Hatcham, in the southeast of London, one of the finest church edifices in the suburb, caught fire soon after noon in a mysterious way and was destroyed.

The vicar, the Rev. Howard Truscott, when asked about the cause of the fire, said: "I cannot ascribe it to any other than those delightful ladies."

The vicar visited the church at noon, when he noticed three women in the building. He now believes they arranged the fire, and thinks explosives must have been used to aid in the destructive work.

A mysterious attempt to explode a bomb was made early this morning outside the Grand Hotel, opposite Trafalgar Square, where the suffragette disturbances took place on Sunday. The hotel was crowded with American tourists. A policeman saw a woman deposit a can with a lighted fuse in front of the door. He abandoned the bomb after extinguishing it by tramping on the fuse, and then pursued the woman. He caught one woman whom he supposed to be the culprit and who, when brought up in court, gave her name as Ada Ward. Investigation proved her to be a night prowler who had often been brought up in police court. She denied planting the bomb, which disappeared while the policeman was chasing her.

Miss Nina Boyle and Miss Anna Monroe, militant suffragettes, who were arrested last evening while attempting to hold a meeting in Hyde Park, when brought up at the police court today, chose fourteen days' imprisonment in preference to the payment of a fine of five dollars each. "Of course, we will not pay," they told the magistrate.

A militant suffragette effected an entrance to The Standard newspaper offices yesterday and ran amuck through several of the rooms, smashing furniture. The woman was finally ejected by the police.

The Standard asserts that the poisoning of the Pekinese champion Chooh-Tai, the property of Miss Violet Ashton-Cross, last week, was the work of militant suffragettes. The dog died soon after winning the championship at the Southampton show.

HOPING FOR SETTLEMENT

Government of Japan Sees Chance of Land Law Problem Being Solved by Negotiations

SAN FRANCISCO, May 6.—The Tokio correspondent of The Japanese New World of this city cabled that paper today that the protest of the Japanese Government against the alien land law in California would be based on the contention that by its terms the Japanese were placed in a position inferior to that granted to citizens of European nations in California, and that the spirit of the "most favored nation" clause of the Japanese treaty with the United States was therefore violated even though no stipulation of the treaty specifically covered the point at issue.

The message adds that there is still a strong feeling in Japan that the difficulty can be solved by negotiations between the two Government. Baron Sakatani, Mayor of Tokio, is quoted as having said in an interview: "The right of naturalization and a new treaty with the United States specifically relating to land ownership will solve the whole question."

Tokio advices to The Japanese American reported that the Japanese Government had announced that a means toward a satisfactory solution of the California problem still remained, and urged that the people await the issue of negotiations with calmness. The means referred to are not described in the message.

IS CRUSHED TO DEATH

Japanese Workman Meets Horrible End at Canadian Puget Sound Lumber Company's Plant

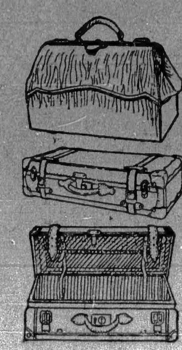

Caught between the log throwing machine at the Canadian Puget Sound Lumber Company's mill while he was attempting to make some repairs, Tomikichi Kodani, a Japanese laborer, was horibly crushed and mangled when someone started the machinery shortly after 8 o'clock yesterday morning. The heavy steel arms comprising part of the machinery were forced down upon the helpless man beneath in such fashion that he was literally cut to pieces about the abdomen, both legs crushed, one arm almost torn off and other injuries occasioned.

Kodani, with two other workmen, had been working on the log-throwing machine which placed the huge logs in position for sawing. The steam had been shut off in order that some bolts beneath the machine could be fastened, and it was while he was beneath that some other workman, apparently believing that the repairs had been affected, turned on the steam. It was some time before Kodani was discovered, an almost shapeless mass.

The police were notified, and Sergeant Webb and Constable [illegible] responded. The remains were taken to the undertaking rooms of the B.C. Funeral Furnishing Company, pending the holding of an inquest this afternoon.

Little is known of Kodani other than that he had worked for the past two [illegible] [illegible]

Progressive Spirit in Oak Bay

MR. F. M. RATTENBURY, REEVE

REEVE RATTENBURY IS WARMLY PRAISED

People of Oak Bay Immensely Pleased at Generous Act by Which They Secure Fine Public Park.

Very general was the appreciation expressed by the residents in Oak Bay yesterday of the generous action of the Reeve, Mr. F. M. Rattenbury, in presenting the municipality with a portion of the waterfront of Shoal Bay. This acquisition of the strip of land between the roadway at Beach Drive and the water, from Transit Road towards Bold Point, added to that which the municipality already owns from Transit Road, running south to where Beach Drive reaches the water, gives the municipal authorities control over the greater portion of the bay.

No buildings will be allowed to be jammed down between road and beach, disfiguring the waterside and providing a minimum of comfort and privacy for their inhabitants. The public will be able to walk down just where they please, or, if they keep to the roadway, enjoy the uninterrupted view of beach and sea as they pass along.

It needs little imagination to conceive what could have been done with Foul Bay if private ownership could have been done away with between road and water and a broad esplanade run around its entire stretch, and it was not Mr. Rattenbury's fault that something ofthis kind was not done. In fact, he recalled the other day having, quite a long time ago, actually endeavored to interest a number of people in a scheme of this sort, but without avail, and the result is that that beautiful little bay can only be enjoyed either by clambering down on to it or by climbing up the rocky heights of Gonzales Hill to look down on it.

Oak Bay now controls the situation at Shoal Bay, has the entire stretch of the golf links shore line assured to her for a generation or more, owns the waterfront from the temporary wharf to the hotel, and has three and one-half acres fronting on the Willows Beach.

PHYSICAL TRAINING CONFERENCE PLANNED

Physical Directors of Northwest States and British Columbia Meet at Seattle This Week.

Mr. H. G. Beall, physical director of the Y. M. C. A. accompanied by Messrs. Walter Smaill and T. G. Dines, leaves tomorrow to attend the annual conference of the physical directors' society of the Northwest which is to be held at Seattle next Friday and Saturday. This conference embraces the associations of this Province and those of the States of Washington, Oregon and Idaho. At the end of the conference the delegates will be conducted all over the playgrounds and parks of Seattle. Mr. Beall is himself preparing a paper for this conference on "The Special Treatment of Y. M. C. A. Members," and among other subjects which will probabl yarouse the greatest interest will be a paper by Mr. J. Howard Steine, director of the Seattle playgrounds, on "The Relation of the Y. M. C. A. to the City Playgrounds Past and Future," and also a paper by Mr. A. T. Applegate of Walla Walla on "Competitive Athletics, Their Advantages and Dangers." A third will be "Causes of Insomnia," by Mr. H. A. Cooke, of Tacoma.

The directors of physical education at the Y. M. C. A.'s of the present day make a special study of the health of the members who present themselves for membership. The directors have received special training in anatomy and other branches of medical work which bear on their labors and are qualified to advise and treat many of the inuries and defects which arise either from the want of proper exercise or accidents. With the numbers of men and boys passing through their hands in a year their knowledge thus received soon becomes augmented by practical experience.

within our own borders for the defence of the Empire. An important question which has not been much discussed is as to how the money is to be expended. The Naval Bill provides for a vote of $35,00,000, but contains nothing relating to the control of the expenditure. After the money has once been placed in the hands of the Ministers, Parliament will have nothing to say about it.

No one would approve of the placing in the hands of the Minister of Canals $35,000,000 with which to construct the Welland Canal. The sum would be voted in annual instalments and under the strict supervision of Parliament in accordance with parliamentary practice. In 1837 a rebellion had been caused because the Family Compact spent money without the control of Parliament. They were apparently reverting to those days.

Three Questions

Mr. German said that there were three questions which it was desirable the Prime Minister should answer. They were in brief: Is it possible to vote, construct and place under the control of the Admiralty the proposed naval force under the provisions of the existing Naval Service Act. There was no doubt that all these things could be done under the present act, and people were wondering why the Government considered it necessary to bring down the new bill.

It had been said that a positive agreement to have the Naval Act repealed had been arrived at between Mr. Borden and the Nationalists. If the Prime Minister did not explain why the Naval Aid Bill was introduced, the people of Canada will believe that such an agreement exists.

Mr. German said that if the government would drop the present bill and bring in appropriation of $35,000,000 to be spent under the control of Parliament and subject to the provisions of the Naval Act the opposition would support it.

Story Unfounded

Hon. J. D. Hazen, who spoke in the evening, declared that there was absolutely nothing in the story that there is a compact between the Government and the Nationalists. Such an agreement, he declared, existing only in the imagination of the members of the Opposition.

Mr. Hazen quoted a large number of figures to show that the cost of construction of battleships in the United States is much higher than in Great Britain. He said that the Fore River Shipbuilding Co., at Quincy, Mass., on which Hon. Wm. Pugsley had based his arguments for construction in Canada, had gone into liquidation.

Mr. Pugsley denied this. The company had sold out to the Bethelhem Steel Co., which proposed to unlarge it, he said.

For a couple of hours the discussion was confined to Mr. Hazen and Mr. Pugsley, each speaking three times. They reviewed each other's political record at great length, to the great amusement of the House. The discussion was continued by Mr. E. M. Macdonald, Mr. Hughes of Prince Edward Island and Mr. Chisholm, of Antigonish, until after midnight.

Replying to a question by Mr. Hughes, as to whether he would appeal to the people if Parliament refused to vote the money, Premier Borden declared that he had letters from hundreds of Liberals saying they would work for the Conservatives at the next election. "Why not give them an opportunity to do so?" asked Mr. Graham.

Mr. Borden said he was quite certain Mr. Graham was not anxious for a fight.

THE LATE BISHOP CRIDGE

A cherished tie with the past was broken when the Right Reverend Edward Cridge entered into the rest to which he has looked forward with faith and hope for nearly a century. It has been to few men to win and hold so warm a place in the hearts of a community as that which has long been his. He was endowed with a manly mind, one in which courage and true nobility were united in no ordinary degree, and both were heightened by a broad spirit of Christian charity. One can hardly feel poignant sorrow for an event which he himself would not have ordered otherwise if it had been in his power. His active work was done and tired Nature had robbed him of almost everything but the memory of it. His life stands out as a splendid example of fidelity and loving kindness. The good he accomplished will endure and his name will always have a niche in the memory of those who knew and loved him, as well as a place in the history of Victoria.

The Colonist was often the fortunate recipient of letters from the late bishop. Some of them were for publication; others were personal recognition of something the paper had said or a kindly word of counsel as to the treatment of some question. It is a source of gratification to us to recall that we have often received words of commendation from this wise and experienced Christian gentleman.

Death, whenever it comes, brings sorrow to those whom it personally bereaves, and so it is fitting that we should express sympathy with the members of the family of our deceased friend.

Bishop Cridge came to Victoria at a very critical time in the history of the community. Public sentiment was then in a formative stage, and there is no room for question that the influence of the deceased clergyman, who at that time was in the very height of vigorous manhood, both intellectually and physically, was a power for good, the extent of which cannot be measured. It doubtless had a potent bearing upon the general attitude of Victoria towards law and order and the suppression of immorality during the strenuous days, which began a few years later, when the news of the gold discoveries in the Fraser attracted to this city an element which respected no laws but those of their own wishes.

There are not many left of the comparatively little band which half a century and more ago were fitting Victoria to be what she has become. One by one they are making their exit from the scene, wherein they played their parts faithfully, but their work remains, an imperishable monument to their worth. Of these none can be accorded a higher place than the aged divine, whose passing away we all mourn.

THE MAYOR'S SUGGESTIONS

The Mayor is urging the aldermen to consider certain proposals, which he has made in regard to the finances of the city. Some of them relate to the method of preparing the estimates for civic expenditure and the collection of city revenue. In respect to these we do not intend at present to make any comment, for they call for some study; but there are two others, which the Council will only lose time in discussing. One of them seems to be that the city shall carry on a banking business. We say "seems to be," because the Mayor is not very lucid in his observations on this point. We understand him to mean that a municipal savings bank shall be established. It is idle for the Council to contemplate approaching the Provincial Legislature with a proposition of this kind, for the good and sufficient reason that it is beyond the power of that body to confer any such power upon a municipality. The subject of banking generally, and specifically of savings banks, is expressly reserved for the jurisdiction of the Dominion Parliament.

The other proposal, which we regard as useless, is that the city shall undertake the insurance of all improvements within the city, and shall collect a sum annually by way of premiums from the owners of the property. It may be that the authority to confer such powers upon the city is possessed by the Legislature; but we do not think there is the least chance of its being exercised. For the city to undertake to insure all buildings in the city would be contrary to all the recognised principles of insurance, which is to divide the risks either by underwriting only a certain amount of insurance in various quarters of the city or by reinsurance. The Mayor would have the city take all the risk that might arise from the destruction of buildings by fire within the city. Such a liability would absolutely ruin the credit of the municipality, and might involve it in enormous charges. Moreaver it would drive all the companies out of the city and make the insurance of personal property practically impossible. What would happen if the city should obtain authority from the Legislature to compel property owners to insure with it, and a serious fire should occur? Let it be supposed that such power had been vested in the city at the last session of the Legislature, and a fire causing even only $100,000 loss had occurred. In what position would the losers be? The city could not pay a dollar.

It is hardly worth while to point out the other objections to the Mayor's proposal, for there is not the slightest likelihood that the Legislature would confer any such power upon the Council, and if Parliament were asked to do so, there is absolute certainty that it would refuse.

MR. RATTENBURY

It is a pleasure, as well as a duty, for us to say a word or two this morning about a very estimable citizen—Mr. F. M. Rattenbury, Reeve of the neighboring municipality. We are sure that all readers of The Colonist yesterday were extremely gratified to learn that through his generosity and thoughtfulness it has been made possible for Oak Bay to become possessed of another magnificent park space. All who have the pleasure of the Reeve's acquaintance will know that it must have given him great personal pleasure to be thus able to contribute to the happiness of the people living in the lovely section down by the sea in the eastern part of the city. We are not overstating the case when we say that in Mr. Rattenbury Oak Bay possesses an asset of incalculable value. In the last analysis it is men that make a community. It would be shortsightedness on our part as a public journal if we failed to thus record our appreciation of the very commendable act to which we are referring, for it is essential that good men be encouraged to noble deeds of this kind. Oak Bay is so close to the city, and is so thoroughly a part of it, that we can claim Mr. Rattenbury as one of our citizens—but, nevertheless, on that account we do not hesitate to congratulate our neighbors on a piece of good fortune which will do much to bring into even more favorable prominence their own municipality.

WORTHY OF INQUIRY

It has been represented to The Colonist that there are a very large number of Seattle mechanics and laborers employed in this city by Seattle contractors and sub-contractors, who refuse to give employment to local people. The result is said to be that the greater part of the money paid out to these Seattle workmen is sent out of the city. If this is the case it is in the interest of both business men and workingmen that the exact conditions should be ascertained and such steps as are possible shall be taken to see that preference is given to our own people, so that the flow of money out of the city may be lessened and the number of unemployed may be reduced.

Whether the condition referred to is sufficiently serious to affect the amount of money in circulation here to any appreciable extent, we do not feel able with our present information to say; but possibly both the Board of Trade and the Labor Council might with advantage give it such attention as will disclose whether any action is desirable. We are very sure that if the shoe were on the other foot, and Victoria contractors were taking Victoria mechanics and laborers to Seattle to work on buildings there, there would be very much of an uproar in the latter city.

On the other hand we have been informed that resident mechanics, skilled in the building trade, have abundance of employment, and that any grievance that may exist of the nature above mentioned applies only to unskilled workmen. While this would materially reduce the cause for complaint, it would still leave a condition of things that would be generally regarded as highly unsatisfactory.

CHURCH UNION

A very formidable movement for Church Unity has been organized in Eastern Canada. At the head of it is the Rev. Herbert Symonds, D. D., vicar of Christ Church Cathedral, Montreal, and associated with him in the leadership are Rev. Canon Plumtree, rector of St. James' Cathedral, Toronto, and Rev. A. P. Shatford, rector of St. James the Apostle, Montreal. A meeting will be held some time this month in Toronto for organization purposes. The history of the movement is brief, and is thus summarized by The Montreal Herald:

A number of Anglican clergymen in Eastern Canada, believing that there should be closer relations between their own and other great Protestant bodies, drew up an appeal which they sent to Anglican clergymen throughout the Dominion. The appeal expressed the belief that the cause of Christian unity would be furthered by two practical steps:

(a) By the admission of ministers of other churches, under certain restrictions and by rightful authority, to the pulpits of our churches.

(b) By permission being given to members of other communions — being members in good standing in their communion — on occasion and with consent of the ordinary, to communicate in our churches.

Three hundred Anglican clergymen in Canada signed the appeal, the sending out of which was in the hands of the Rev. A. P. Shatford as secretary. Those back of the movement decided, however, to send the appeal out to the laymen of Canada as well. The responses to the appeal to the laymen are still pouring in from all parts of the Dominion, and the total of names is now over one thousand, as far as can be learned. Some of the most prominent and influential laymen of the Church of England in Canada have signed the appeal.

The Herald says that, while seven of the Eastern bishops have declared themselves opposed to the movement, two Western bishops favor it. Names are not given. Great interest will be taken in the outcome of the forthcoming meeting.

A PROBLEM

Dr. N. Newnham Davies writes us the following letter from Nanaimo River:

"The recent conviction of a motorist, related in The Colonist, for passing a horse-drawn vehicle at more than ten miles an hour suggests the following problem. A motorist touring at the legal speed of nineteen miles per hour overtakes a horse and trap trotting eleven miles an hour; the wisdom of our legislators has ordained that he may not approach the horse vehicle at over ten miles per hour. What must he do?

"As the exhibitor of a problem is always expected to give a solution, I give you mine; it is: 'The law is a hass.'"

It must be confessed that Dr. Davis has proposed a difficult question, even if the law is only as we think it is, that the motorist shall not pass the horse-drawn vehicle at a greater speed than ten miles an hour. It is very clear that if a horse-drawn vehicle is proceeding at the rate of ten miles an hour a motorist going in the same direction can never get by without rendering himself liable to a penalty, unless he can persuade the driver of the horse to pull up and let him pass. The law permits the motorist to go faster than eleven miles and hour, but the driver of the horse can prevent him from excercising his legal rights. Fortunately not many horses in this part of the world are driven at ten miles an hour.

Most people seem to have forgotten that this year is the centennial of Oddfellowship. At least what was known as the Manchester Union of Oddfellows, the parent of the existing organization, was organized in 1813. Previous to that date there had existed in England a number of independent organizations calling themselves Oddfellows. The Manchester Lodge granted a charter in 1820 to the Washington Lodge, formed in Baltimore, and from this organization sprang what is known as the Independent Order of Oddfellows. It took this title in 1843, since which time it has had no official connection with English Oddfellowship. It is said that the first association to adopt the name of Oddfellows was formed in England in 1745.

There are at present 1,479,317 Oddfellows in the United States and 96,512 in Canada. Since 1830 the Independent Order has distributed the vast sum of $105,425,000 in benefits.

PLURAL VOTING

The Bill now before the British House of Commons provides a penalty upon persons who vote in more than one constituency at a general election. It does not prevent a person from being upon the voters' list in many constituencies, but one who is so situated must elect in which he will vote. The statement was made by the mover of the Bill that the Government intends at a later day to deal with the subject of registration in a very comprehensive way.

There seems to be no doubt that the measure will pass the House of Commons, and the general opinion is that the Lords will accept it. If it becomes law, it will affect about 400,000 plural voters in the United Kingdom. The general opinion is that its passage will affect the result of elections in many constituencies to a sufficient extent to change the political character of their representation in Parliament.

The Water Commissioner is absolutely sound in his expressed opinion that the water supply of the city should be regarded as a means of building up the community and not primarily as a source of revenue.

Whether Woman Suffrage is to be granted in the United Kingdom or not, one thing seems very certain. The law must be asserted at all cost, even if death results to those who persist in its violation. When it comes to an attempt to dynamite a hotel crowded with guests, the question as to whether some mad woman shall be allowed to starve herself to death becomes of minor importance.

The news that Mr. R. H. Hall, for many years at the head of the fur business of the Hudson's Bay Company, has retired, will be of interest to his many friends in this Province. Mr. Hall represented Cassiar for some years in the local House, and was very well known in this city. His retirement, we are glad to say, is not due to failing health, for he is hale and hearty and only sixty years of age.

Is our evening contemporary correct in saying that the Highway Bill does not provide for a division of the Federal grant among the Provinces? Our impression is that it is to be divided between the Provinces according to population, but to be expended under the direction of the Department of Public Works. If we are mistaken in this we shall be glad to be set right, not because it is a vital matter who expends it, but simply because we do not wish to remain under a wrong impression.

The decision of the police magistrate to the effect that the Lord's Day Act does not apply to Vancouver Island, because by its terms this part of Canada, having a law applicable to itself, is exempt from its operation, raises a question of very great interest. The decision is subject to appeal, but we are not advised whether the case will be taken to a higher court. The Attorney-General was not advised of the decision until informed by The Colonist late yesterday afternoon and he had not been able to give the case consideration.

Are we to understand our evening contemporary is objecting to the establishment of a technical school in the proposed Normal School building? It asks why such a school should not be established in connection with the High School. We are unable to advance any reason against such a plan, except that the course which the Minister of Education has adopted seems the better one. We think we can assure all who are interested in the matter that the administration of the proposed technical school will be found in the highest degree satisfactory to the city school service.

Speaking of the forthcoming visit to the Arctic, Mr. Stefansson said in a recent address delivered in London: "Some scientists hold that there is a vast area of undiscovered land in the unmapped portion of the Polar Sea, for it is impossible to explain the tidal phenomena on any other assumption, and the smallest area in this region is put at 500,000 square miles. In 1867 the American Secretary of State was publicly denounced for spending $6,500,000 of public money for the purchase of Alaska, which was regarded as a block of ice. Today Alaska is a commercial empire of fabulous wealth. It would be rash to say this is not possible in the Canadian Arctic."

Angle Lamps With One, Two, Three and Four Lights Now in Stock

Next in brilliance to the city electric or gas light. Rather a strong statement to make about an oil lamp, but can be proven to your entire satisfaction.

In the first place, the oil fount is so arranged that it does not interfere with the even distribution of the light.

It does not burn the oil direct; it burns oil vapor. That's why there is neither smoke nor smell with the angle lamp.

For Summer Homes

The camp, country residence, and all other places where a good light is necessary or desirable, try an angle lamp and you'll agree that it's the most convenient, economical and efficient lamp you have ever seen.

HUSBAND APPEARS SAVES WIFE'S LIFE

Seizes Weapon of Would-Be Slayer, Wrenching Smoking Revolver From Grasp Just in Time.

Firing two shots, both of which took effect, John C. Pendleton was prevented yesterday at 12:40 o'clock from murdering Mrs. Ella Campbell, wife of Harry Campbell, proprietor of the Blue Post Saloon, 718 Johnson Street, by the timely arrival of Mr. Campbell, who seized the would-be murderer and wrenching the smoking revolver from his grasp felled him with a blow from the butt of the weapon. Mrs. Campbell, shot through the bicep of the right arm and in the right knee, swooned as Pendleton, his hand in the grasp of the husband, again pulled the trigger twice the bullets entering the ceiling above.

Mrs. Campbell is lying in St. Joseph's Hospital. Pendleton, his head bearing a long gash caused by the blow from the butt of the revolver, is held at the police station on a charge of shooting with intent to kill. Pending the outcome of Mrs. Campbell's injuries the present charge will lie.

No Reason Assigned

Absolutely no reason, so far as either Mr. or Mrs. Campbell know, can be assigned for Pendleton's murderous attack. The man was known to both husband and wife but there had been absolutely no ill-feeling between them and him. Pendleton was apparently quite sober when he made his attempt to murder the woman, and following his apprehension he made no statement indicating in the slightest degree his reasons for his act.

Until a year ago Pendleton was a bartender at the Blue Post Saloon, but latterly he has been proprietor of a small cigar store located in the Columbia Building, at the southeast corner of Broad Street and Pandora Avenue. Yesterday, shortly after noon, he entered the barroom of the Blue Post Saloon and after partaking of a drink and chatting with Mr. Campbell, who was behind the bar, he passed out into the haliway and thence into the kitchen, where Mrs. Campbell was engaged in washing the dinner dishes. The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Campbell was also in the kitchen, Pendleton asked to be given a room, but Mrs. Campbell was busy at the time and did not answer him. He repeated his request just as Mrs. Campbell was going towards the pantry off the kitchen. She turned around in time to see Pendleton pull a revolver from his side pocket, and as she cried out to the child Pendleton pointed the revolver and pulled the trigger. The first shot tore through the biceps of the right arm and was immediately followed by another which struck Mrs. Campbell in the right knee.

Husband to Rescue

Mr. Campbell, alarmed by the reports and the cries of his wife, rushed into the kitchen, which is but a few feet from the barroom. Pendleton had the revolver extended as if about to shoot again. Mr. Campbell grasped the outstretched arm of the other and forced it upwards, Pendleton pulling the trigger twice as he did so. The bullets from these two shots buried themselves in the ceiling. With a wrench Mr. Campbell tore the revolver from Pendleton's grasp and struck him full on the head with the butt, knocking him unconscious.

Pendleton fell forward, his shoulders and head within the pantry entrance. He was still unconscious when the police, summoned by a customer who was in the bar, arrived in the motor patrol.

Mrs. Campbell, in the meantime, had been placed upon a couch bleeding profusely from her two wounds, but quite conscious and self-contained. Dr. G. A. B. Hall was summoned, and after making a cursory examination of the wounds, ordered the injured woman's removal to St. Joseph's Hospital in the police patrol. Sergeant Webb and License Inspector Hatcher conveying her thither. On the return of the parol Pendleton, who had recovered consciousness, was taken to the police station, where the gash in his head was washed and first aid given by Sergeant Webb and Inspector Hatcher. Dr. Bapty was called and dressed the wound, several stitches being required. The work of the officers in attending to Pendleton, before he arrived, was heartily commended by Dr. Bapty.

Mrs. Campbell suffered extremely from the wound in the knee, the bullet lodging behind the knee cap and requiring much care in its extraction. This wound is the serious one. The other is merely a flesh wound.

The revolver was a 38-caliber, five chamber, Smith & Wesson. Four of the cartridges had been discharged and a loaded shell was still remaining.

CARS IN COLLISION

Tram Runs Into Motor Being Towed Along Street, Badly Smashing Latter

Through the motorman of a Spring Ridge car failing to notice that the motor car which had just crossed the tracks at the corner of Cook and North Park Streets at 11:30 o'clock on Monday evening, was towing another and disabled car, the latter machine was badly damaged in the collision which occurred.

Mr. P. T. Courtney was towing the car owned by Mr. Messerschmidt, 1221 Whittaker Street, the latter machine having become out of order. Mr. Courtney's machine had crossed the tracks just as the Spring Ridge car, eastbound, came along. Apparently the motorman did not see the line connected with the car behind and kept going ahead, striking Mr. Messerschmidt's car as the latter came to the track. Mr. Messerschmidt was thrown from his car, but escaped serious injury. His car, however, was badly wrecked, the rear portion being smashed, a wheel torn off and other injuries occasioned. The fender of the street car was also smashed.

CONSTABLE SHOWS PLUCK

Stops Runaway Team on Crowded Corner of Yates and Douglas Streets, Preventing Collision

By ready action and a display of nerve which drew forth hearty appreciation from many persons who witnessed his act, Constable Littlefield last evening shortly after 5 o'clock prevented a serious accident in stopping a runaway team owned by the Royal Transfer Company. He was on "point" duty at the corner of Yates and Douglas Streets. A Willows car was just rounding the corner from Yates Street to Douglas Street when the runaway team, tearing along at full speed, appeared running north along Douglas Street from Humboldt Street. Constable Littlefield had barely time to signal to the motorman to stop his car before the team was at the street intersection. Without an instant's hesitation the constable leaped for the head of the nearest animal catching the bridle and hung on with grim determination. He was carried nearly to Johnson Street before he brought the terrified animals to a standstill.

LABOR DEPARTMENT HAS SPECIAL REPORT

Cost of Living During 1912 Taken Up in Comprehensive Manner—Wholesale Prices Make Great Strides.

A comprehensive report on the all-absorbing topic of the rise in the cost of living has just been issued by the department. It is in the form of a detailed review of the course of wholesale and retail prices from month to month, and in some cases from week to week, throughout 1912. The wholesale prices are for 287 articles chosen as representative of the entire field of production and consumption, quotations being taken in each case in the governing market. The retail prices are for thirty articles which enter chiefly into domestic budgets, and are taken monthly from every locality in Canada having a population of 10,000 and upward.

The report shows that wholesale prices went up over 9 per cent in 1912, due allowance being made for the varying importance in trade of the several communities. Retail prices did not advance so rapidly, but the department estimates that a weekly family budget, worked out at average prices, cost $12.24 in 1910, $12.89 in 1911, and $13.63 in 1912. In the terms of the department's index number, a level indicated by 127.4 in 1911 rose to one of 134.4 in 1912, the numbers being percentages of the average prices prevailing during the decade 1890-1899, the period adopted by the department as the standard for comparison throughout its investigation. This brings prices higher than they have been before in a generation; certainly a like situation has not been seen since the early seventies, when prices were very high throughout America and Europe. Since 1897, the report shows that prices have advanced by very nearly 50 per cent in Canada.

The report contains 255 pages, and is replete with information bearing on all sides of the price question. There are twenty-five charts which enable certain features of the movement to be appreciated at a glance. Moreover, in the case of each article, statistics of production, demand, trade, etc., are added, thus enabling the reader to obtain a good idea as to the main factors which are at work. An appendix is devoted to the course of prices in the United States, Canada and Australasia during 1912, based on the findings of leading authorities. Another appendix deals with gold production and consumption in recent years, a feature which, in the opinion of some economists, is intimately connected with the recent rise. The report is a compendium of information of value equally to the business man and the householder. Familiar as the subject is, it is only after an analytical study like the present into its many phases that an understanding of its essential nature can be obtained and the question of possible remedies discussed.

STEAM SHOVELS AT WORK

Seven Big Machines at Work Tearing Into G.T.P. Fraser River Right-of-Way

EDMONTON, Alta., May 6.—Seven steam shovels, four of seventy tons and three of forty tons, are tearing into the Grand Trunk Pacific right of way of the Fraser River, where 1,500 men are employed, and it is announced by A. G. Sims of the firm of Carey & Sims, contractors, on the grade from Mile 142 to Fort George, B.C., 90 miles, that the work will be completed in November.

Mr. Sims said that the working force will be increased to between 3,500 and 4,000 within the next thirty days. It is expected that the river will be open for navigation within ten days, when a fleet of 1,500 scows, river boats and launches will start on the journey from the head of steel to Fort George.

There is every indication that this will be the busiest season the Fraser River has ever witnessed since Fraser went down it with his Indians in 1820. The distance from Mile 53 to Fort George by water route is 250 miles and the rocks in the canyon were blown out with dynamite during the Winter so that the boats can now be put through without making portages.

The Sims family, the head of which was president of the firm of Sims & Shepard, has been identified with railway construction since territorial days in the United States, built the Great Northern Railway from Devils Lake, N. D., to the Pacific Coast.

Burnaby ratepayers have given large favorable majorities for the B. C. E. R. Company's franchise, sidewalks, roads, and school by-laws, the four aggregating upwards of $666,000.

Capital Chauffeurs' Association—At the regular general meeting of the Capital Chauffeurs' Association, the following officers have been elected for the current year: President, W. E. White; vice-president, B. Taylor; treasurer, A. J. Stevenson; secretary, A. J. Cromwell, by acclamation. A vote of thanks was also tendered to the retiring officers.

Miners' Licenses—Mining men throughout the Province are reminded that all free miners' licenses now in existence lapse, unless previously renewed, on May 31. As possession of a miner's license is necessary for the staking or holding of mining property, the renewal of such licenses in good time is something which parties interested cannot afford to neglect.

Building Progress—Building permits were issued yesterday by the building inspector to Mr. J. R. Green for a dwelling on Earle Street to cost $4,000; to Mrs. Ella Campbell, dwelling on Walton Street, $2,000; to Mr. T. J. Ross, dwelling on Richardson Street, $290; to Mr. R. T. Williams, alterations to store front in Yates Street premises, $1,500; to Messrs. Gray & Skelton, dwelling on Beechwood Street, $3,000; to Mr. C. M. Westgood, garage on Princess Street, $200.

Must Pay Dog Tax—Owners of dogs for which this year's tax has not yet been paid must make the necessary contribution to the civic treasury on or before May 31, or they will be summoned to appear in the police court. Collector L. E. Gower is giving notice to that effect. These taxes are due at the first of the year, and owners of canines are liable to a fine if the tax be not paid on or before February 1. The collector's present notice is in the nature of a final warning.

Maintains Innocence—Francis Joseph, an Indian, was arraigned before Magistrate Jay yesterday accused of having a hand in an assault on the bartender of the Ship Inn saloon. The latter told a story of four men attacking him, one using a revolver threateningly. Francis Joseph when placed on the stand stated that he was twenty yards away from the fracas with a friend. Two white men had done the fighting. City Prosecutor Harrison asked for a remand to enable him to secure another witness. This was granted.

Interviewed Premier—The Provincial Prime Minister, Sir Richard McBride, was yesterday waited upon by a deputation from his former home city of New Westminster, the visitors including Mr. Thomas Gifford, M. P. P., Mayor Gray, Captain Powell and others, who desired to discuss various matters directly affecting the progress and development of the Royal City, inclusive of the projected harbor improvements for the river port. As Sir Richard plans to visit New Westminster on May 13, it is arranged to have a further conference at the New Westminster city hall on that date.

Inter-Municipal Drainage—The regular monthly meeting of the intermunicipal committee composed of representatives of the councils of the city, Oak Bay, Esquimalt, and Saanich, will be held on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Council Chamber at the City Hall. Among matters of importance to the various municipalities to be discussed will be that of joint sewerage arrangements, this important point having arisen between the city and Esquimalt in regard to the proposed trunk sewer to drain into the sea at Macaulay Point. This matter has been referred to the respective city engineers for report.

Will Arbitrate Claim—Tomorrow, the arbitrators in the case will journey to Sooke Lake to view the property of Mrs. Catherine Joseph, a portion of which the city seeks for right of way for the pipe line of the Sooke Lake waterworks system. The city requires 3.60 acres for which, on the basis of $100 an acre paid in other cases it has offered Mrs. Joseph $260. She has refused this figure, and an arbitration is necessary to fix the amount the city must pay. Mr. James Forman has been selected by the city; Mr. J. J. Shallcross, by the owner, and Mr. A. R. Wolfenden, is third arbitrator.—City Solicitor Robertson is acting for the city, and Messrs. Courtney & Elliott, for Mrs. Joseph.

Contractor on Stand—Mr. Amos Atherton, a contractor, who is the plaintiff in a County Court action against Messrs. A. W. Fayn Le Seueur, Bryant Newbold, the Franco-Canadian Mortgage Co., Ltd., the Uplands, Ltd., and Mr. H. W. Gardner, was on the stand all day yesterday. The Uplands, Ltd., and Mr. H. W. Gardner, was on the stand all day yesterday. His cross-examination by Mr. H. B. Robertson, who appears for the first mentioned defendants, was underway at the time of adjournment. In yesterday's account of the case it was stated with regard to the plaintiff's evidence that he "has neither denied the charges made nor given an explanation." It should have read, "he has either denied the charges made or given his explanation."

Make Park Inspection—Mr. F. Stewart White, who has sought permission of the city to put on Summer entertainments in the parks, yesterday paid a visit in company with Alderman Dilworth, chairman of the parks committee, to Stadacona Park, th eproperty recently purchased from Major Dupont. Mr. White some time ago applied for permission to use Beacon Hill Park, but this request was refused on the ground that the city cannot legally permit the erection of a stand or other structure there. If Mr. White is willing to utilize Stadacona Park, his request can be complied with. Alderman Dilworth will submit a report on the matter at the next meeting of the Council.

Noted Author Coming—Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, creator of "Sherlock Holmes," and Lady Conan Doyle will pass several months in the Province and Alberta early next year, making the Jasper Park, west of Edmonton, on the main line of the G. T. P., their objective point, with headquarters at Fitzhugh, in the heart of the Yellowhead Pass. Authority for this statement is Colonel S. Maynard Rogers, superintendent of the park, who has just spent a month in this new national playground, which covers an area of 1,400 square miles. The staff of the park is now engaged in building a wagon trail to Pyramid Lake, one of the finest spots there, for the erection of Summer cottages. Professor Prince, Superintendent of Dominion Fisheries, is to stock this lake with fish.

Still Another Investigation—Still another civic investigation will shortly be commenced, when the resolution of the City Council passed some two months ago will be acted upon. At that time Alderman Cuthbert strongly objected to statements made in and out of Council session, especially during the last municipal campaign, relative to the actions of members of last year's finance committee of the Council, and he demanded that in justice to himself and other members of that committee who are now on the Council, an investigation should be held for the purpose of establishing or discrediting the assertions made. At Monday night's meeting of the Council, Alderman Cuthbert called attention to the fact that so far no investigation, as ordered by the Council, had been undertaken, and he urged that a date for the inquiry be set. This will probably be done at the next session of the Council.

Theft Charge—A young man of the laboring class, who looked very much bewildered when the charge of theft theft standing against him was made clear, appeared before Magistrate Jay yesterday. That he entered Mr. Ashdown Green's house, 641 Government Street, on Monday and that he abstracted a sum of money from the pockets of Joe, the Chinese cook, was shown by the evidence. But Mr. Green, who found him before his departure, stated that he seemed very stupid. So pronounced was this impression that witness took him for an "innocent." In his statement, which was of a straightforward character, the accused said he remembered nothing of the occurrence, asserted that he had money in the bank, and declared that he must have got into the house by mistake. He also mentioned some friends he claimed to have whom he felt sure would vouch for his character. The case was remanded to allow the latter to be called.

Garage Employe Burned—Through the ignition of gasoline in the Cadillac Garage, corner of Cook and Fort Streets, yesterday afternoon at 2:50 o'clock, Thomas Lewis, an employee, was badly burned about the face and neck. He was repairing a motor car when crossed wires of the battery caused a spark which ignited a quantity of gasoline standing nearby. In an instant the flames burst forth directly in Lewis' face. Another employee sent in a telephone alarm, which was promptly responded to by the fire department, which soon put out the fire. The police patrol also responded to the alarm, and Sergeant Webb and Constable Shawyer gave first aid to Lewis, dressing his burns, after which he was taken to his home. In responding to the alarm, the motor hose wagon from No. 2 hall met with an accident on Yates Street, the front wheels skidding and causing the machine to crash into the curb. The front axle was bent, but little other damage was done.

Protestant Orphanage—The ladies' committee of the British Columbia Protestant Orphans' Home met on Monday afternoon at the home, with the following ladies attending: Mesdames McTavish, McCulloch, W. R. Higgins, Miller, Pierce, Sherwood, Dalby, J. Langley Vigelius, C. F. Todd, Spencer, Few, Huckel, Andrews, W. Scowcroft and Miss Metcalfe. The visiting committee reported visiting the home weekly during the month and making the necessary purchases. The nursery is now occupied and in charge of an assistant. In all the children number sixty-seven, all in good health. The date of the annual pound party was set for Wednesday, June 18. Bills amounting to $1,111.22 were passed, Mrs. Scowcroft and Miss Metcalfe appointed visitors for May, and after reading the following donation list the meeting adjourned. Gifts from Mrs. Hillis, Mrs. Townsend, Ladies of Royal Arcanum, Mrs. Joseph Sears, "Cloverdale," Mrs. Wilkerson, Mr. Scott, a Friend, "Moose Lodge," a Friend, Mrs. Vigelius and the S. F. C. A. were gratefully acknowledged.

NO SUNDAY LAW AFFECTS ISLAND

Magistrate Jay Declares Lord's Day Act Inoperative Because of Provincial Legislation Which Still Applies.

No legislation relating to Sunday observance, with the exception of what is contained in the Provincial Sunday Observance Act as passed in 1871 and amended in 1888, affects Vancouver Island.

In his finding handed down yesterday morning in the charges laid against nine cigar and fruit dealers for breach of the terms of the Lord's Day Act on March 16, Police Magistrate Jay takes the position outlined.

As a result of the verdict the island section of British Columbia occupies a peculiar position. It is the only part of the Dominion of Canada exempted from the enforcement of the provisions of the Lord's Day Act following the Provincial Attorney-General's consent to its operation.

Hon. W. J. Bowser, the Attorney-General, was asked whether he was prepared to make a statement in regard to the situation thus created. His answer was that, not having had time to give the matter consideration, he had nothing to offer for publication.

Mr. Frank Higgins, who defended the merchants arraigned, is responsible for raising the constitutional point which has made it possible for dealers to do what they wish on the Sabbath irrespective of the restrictions laid down by the federal legislation.

The stand taken by Mr. Higgins was that the Provincial law governing Sunday observance passed in 1871 was amended in 1888, as a concession to the island members who protested against the curtailing of the liberty of their constituents on the Sabbath or ony other day. This amendment distinctly laid down that the island should be exempted from the enforcement of the law.

Following this counsel pointed to sections 5 and 16 of the Lord's Day Act which distinctly state that it shall not be construed to repeal or in any way affect any provisions of any act or law relating in any way to the observance of the Lord's Day in force in any Province of Canada when this act comes into force."

Magistrate's Judgment.

In giving judgment Magistrate Jay said:

"It must be apparent to anybody," he stated, "that the Parliament of Canada in the Lord's Day Act intended to preserve to the different Provinces to a great extent their legislation relating to the Lord's Day. In 1863 the crown colony saw fit by proclamation to bring into force the laws in England relating to this matter. In 1888 the Provincial legislature declared that that should apply to the former separate colony of British Columbia only. It might perhaps have been argued that the Provincial statute was ultra vires, but that was not before me and the Dominion authorities have taken no objection to the Provincial act. There is, therefore, a statute in this Province relating to Sunday observance, and I have come to the conclusion that the Lord's Day Act does not apply to the cases before this court. The charge is dismissed."

Prosecutor Harrison then announced that the other cases were withdrawn.

VITAL STATISTICS

Some Exceptionally Interesting Figures Given in the Returns for First Quarter of Current Year

Returns for the first quarter of the current year, of births, deaths, and marriages have now been completed by the statisticians of the vital statistics branch here, for all parts of the Province with the exception of Vancouver city, which, unfortunately, is still many months in arrears with its returns. Eliminating from consideration, therefore, the most populous city of British Columbia, the total record of births for the first three months of 1913 is 1,492. By districts, the births registrations show 37 for Chilliwack, 2 Clinton, 28 Cowichan, 41 Comox, 42 Cranbrook, 63 Fernie, 17 Golden, 3 Hazelton, 235 Kamloops, 12 Ladner, 112 Nanaimo, 82 Nelson, 313 New Westminster, 56 Prince Rupert, 39 Revelstoke, 289 Victoria City and 118 Victoria District.

The total of registered marriages for the quarter (again necessarily eliminating Vancouver) is 441 and of deaths 681. By districts these returns are thus represented: Marriages: Victoria City 164, Victoria District 13, New Westminster 72, Kamloops 63, Nanaimo 27, Chilliwack 5, Comox 6, Cowichan 1, Fernie 21, Golden 2, Nelson 22, Cranbrook 13, Revelstoke 10, Clinton 2, Prince Rupert 15, Hazelton and Ladner 1 each. Deaths: Victoria City 134, Victoria District 37, New Westminster 117, Kamloops 145, Nanaimo 37, Chilliwack 11, Comox 27, Cowichan 7, Fernie 49, Golden 11, Nelson 36, Cranbrook 21, Revelstoke 10, Clinton 13, Prince Rupert 15, Hazelton 8 and Ladner 3.

An interesting feature continually presents itself in connection with the record of marriages throughout the Province, this being found in the fact that whereas in the cities and other centres of established population the average age for marriage is with men 27 years and with women 22, in the isolated districts it is very considerably higher and about equal, at 34 or 35. The bride's age at marriage in the remote districts is almost invariably higher than in the urban or suburban population centres.

Mr. City's Wishes—Alderman Woodside, of Vancouver, has returned to that city after a satisfactory conference with Attorney-General Bowser in the matter of the desired betterment of approach to the projected Second Narrows bridge. The Government has reserved certain lots in the section concerned for purposes of such approach, which meets the city's desires.

NEWS OF THE CITY

Colonel Thompson's Lecture—The illustrated lecture by Colonel Reginald Thompson, supervising engineer of Strathcona Park, which was to have been delivered at Vancouver on the evening of May 8, has been postponed until the evening of Friday, May 30.

New G.T.P. Townsite—Announcement is made by Mr. F. W. Crawford, B. C. manager of the Transcontinental Townsite Company, that the new G.T.P. Railway townsite at Stewart River is being prepared about two miles from the mouth of the Stewart River and sixty miles from Fort George, with a frontage of one mile on the Nechaco River.

May Cause Strike—Advices which recently came to this city are to the effect that I. W. W. agents have been working among the construction camps on the Kettle Valley division of the C. N. R. and have been urging a general tie-up of work, with the result that several gangs quit work last week and one hundred men went out at Naramata. The places of the striking men have been filled, it is stated.

Important Judgment—At Vancouver, on Monday, judgment was given by Mr. Justice Murphy dismissing with costs the action for alleged libel and alleged malicious prosecution brought by Mr. W. G. Stirton against the members of the Vancouver Association of Life Underwriters. The trial of the action lasted five days. In giving judgment, his lordship said that in the action at trial two causes were involved—that of alleged libel and alleged malicious prosecution. Stripped to the core, the question was that of the credibility on the one side of Stirton and on the other of Johnson and McEwen.

Will Permit Alterations—Permission of the city will be granted to the trustees of the First Presbyterian Church to alter the church premises by removing the tower and vestibule. These changes are necessary because of the expropriation by the city of a portion of the Pandora Avenue frontage for the widening of that thoroughfare between Amelia and Douglas Streets. The trustees applied to the building inspector for a permit for this work, but under the new building by-law he was unable to grant it. As, however, the street widening work has necessitated the alterations, and the trustees and city last year agreed to them, the Council has granted the asked-for permission.

Mail Service Question—The Committee of the Board of Trade charged with trade and commerce affairs met yesterday and discussed the necessity of extending the mail facilities of Alberni. It was pointed out that mail is dispatched there only three times a week, despite the fact that there is a daily train service. The committee recommended a daily mail service and agreed that word should be at once sent to Ottawa on the subject so that the change may be made without unnecessary delay. The development of Alberni and the country tributary to it is regarded as sufficient justification for the extension, and the Board of Trade is confident that the Dominion postal authorities will see it in the same light.

Verdict of Suicide—Suicide by hanging was the verdict which the coroner's jury returned yesterday afternoon after investigating into the circumstances surrounding the death of Mr. John Bernard Rosscamp, whose body was discovered on Sunday morning hanging by the neck in the woodshed at the rear of the family home, 403 Kingston Street. The evidence of Dr. McMicking showed that death was due to strangulation. A son of the deceased testified that his father on Saturday afternoon appeared in exceptionally good spirits and had returned home about 9 o'clock in the evening. He retired, and nothing further was seen of him until his body was found hanging in the woodshed the next morning. So far as the son knew, his father had been in good health and spirits and had no troubles of any kind to worry him.

Lecture to Civil Engineers—"Some Public Works and Explorations in B. C. Since 1880," was the subject of the paper read before the Vancouver branch of the Canadian Society of Civil Engineers by Mr. F. C. Gamble, of Victoria. Mr. Gamble said that in 1880 Vancouver was unknown and Victoria was only an incorporated village. The Dominion dry-dock at Esquimalt was at that time in the process of erection. In that year the Dominion Government expended in public improvements, exclusive of telegraph, railways and public buildings, an amount less than $30,000. In the present year there will be spent for the same purposes in this Province by the Dominion $1,750,000. The lecturer described some of the development work which had taken place in the harbor of Victoria, together with a description of the engineering work in the vicinity of Windermere.

Fifty Families Assisted—Mrs. Thos. Watson presided at the Friendly Help meeting yesterday morning. Reports showed that fifty families had been assisted and that there was great need of a free maternity ward in Victoria. The following donations were acknowledged with thanks: Cash from Mrs. William Grant, R. A. C. Grant, Esq., A Friend, Mrs. Ker, Henry W. Driver, J. E. Painter & Son, and the City; clothing, furniture, etc., from 417 Menzies street, Mrs. Wm. Grant, Mrs. Thornton Fell, Mrs. Mellin, A Friend, Mrs. Corry Wood, Mrs. Clarke, Mrs. J. L. Beckwith, Miss Ellis, Mrs. Arthur Crease, Mrs. Robertson, Mrs. Almon, Mrs. Stephen Jones, Miss Dawson, Mrs. Underwood, Mrs. D. R. Ker, Mrs. J. Valo, Mrs. Gill, Mrs. J. Fraser, Miss Blackwood, Mrs. Solly, Mrs. S. Reid, Miss T. A. Gill, Mr. David Leeming, Mrs. Sturdy, Miss Gowan and Mrs. J. Leeming.

Noted Speaker Coming—A treat is promised Victorians when one of the best known platform orators of North America, John Z. White, of Chicago, arrives to speak here, May 16 and 17. The Victoria Theatre has been engaged for Saturday, May 17, and Mr. White will speak on the question of the commission form of Government. On the evening of May 16, Mr. White will speak in the Congregational Church on "Henry George and His Philosophy." Rev. John G. Inkster, who did much to advance the movement in Ontario, will preside at this meeting.

ANNUAL SESSION OF PRESBYTERIAN SYNOD

Twenty-First Yearly Meeting to Open in Vancouver on Wednesday Next—Weighty Problems to Be Discussed.

The twenty-first annual session of the Presbyterian Synod of British Columbia will open Wednesday evening, May 7, in Chalmers Church, Vancouver. The opening exercises will be conducted and the annual sermon preached by the retiring moderator, Rev. R. J. Wilson, pastor of St. Andrew's Church. The first business will be the election of a new moderator. The office of clerk in this body is a permanent institution. Rev. J. A. Logan of Westminster Hall has held this office for fifteen consecutive years and will undoubtedly be continued in the same capacity.

The synod is constituted of both ministerial and lay delegates, every church in British Columbia being entitled to one of each class. Others who are entitled to a voice and vote are the professors in colleges and those whose names have been placed upon the roll by the general assembly.

From a numerical standpoint the Presbyterian Church is second only to Methodism throughout Canada, at least among the Protestant bodies. It easily holds that position in British Columbia.

Some Weighty Problems

Like all aggressive religious bodies, the Presbyterian Church has many problems of profound interest pressing for solution. The biggest question at this session will be home missions. More attention, it is urged, must be paid to the needs of the home field. Moral and social reform will come in for a large share of attention.

The budget must not be overlooked. Until recently the Presbyterian Church handled its finances on the separated plan. Now all funds are raised in one lump sum and out of this every department of the church activity is supported.

The budget last year was $1,200,000. It will probably remain at that figure. Methods of raising the fund will be discussed. The working of this plan has met with great favor. It is the application of modern business methods to the financial problems of the church.

On Thursday, May 8, at 2:30 p.m., a missionary conference will be held under the auspices jointly of the Woman's Foreign and Home Missionary Societies. Speakers from abroad will address the meeting. These will be Miss Magill of North Honan, Miss Rattee of Toronto social service department and Miss Strong of New Westminster.

COMING EVENTS

Have Some Real Joy This Summer

The warm sun of yesterday was like a tonic. How magically it turned one's thoughts to the thousand joys and pleasures of the Summer season. Yesterday was only the beginning; months of long, bright days are ahead, days of out-of-doors happiness. Why don't you plan NOW to get the very utmost out of them? Columbia instruments add more to all outdoor pleasures, as well as indoor pleasures, than any other one factor.

Columbia Instruments

are made in many styles, to suit any and every need; they are made in many sizes and types, to suit every purse; they are sold, without exception, on easy terms, enabling almost anyone to purchase them without hardship and to use and enjoy them while paying for them. The "Regal" (No. 1) has all the grace and appearance of one of the higher-priced models, especially when fitted with the record cabinets. As illustrated, it costs $65; without the cabinets, $52.

The "Favorite" (No. 2), selling for $65, is a beautiful instrument, useful on almost any occasion. Like it, the "Eclipse" (No. 3), costing only $26, will be very popular in camp life, yachting and boating trips, and, in fact, in all outdoor pastimes this Summer.

On Easy Terms Plan

offered by us, any one of these instruments can be bought without the least "skimping," and fou can enjoy them while you pay for them. They are all absolute leaders in their respective classes. Don't wait until a big slice of the Summer has gone. Come in now, this week, and hear these instruments; then choose YOURS and let us make the terms suit you.

Remember, you'll get far more real fun out of any occasion this Summer by adding a Columbia to your circle of friends. Not only that, but the possession by you of one of these famous instruments will render you welcome everywhere. Don't wait. Come in right away and talk it over.

MATTERS OF MOMENT IN WOMEN'S REALM

Queen Mary

In her high place Queen Mary is representative of much that is best and most admirable in the womanhood of our race.

As Princess May, the fair English girl was carefully trained by her mother, who considered that high rank called for the performance of all the duties which women owe to themselves, to society and to the world. It is owing to her care that the Queen is skilled in housewifely arts and is interested in the welfare of all classes of her subjects.

That the Queen has a grasp of the affairs of the Empire and that she has the courage which is one of the highest attributes of a noble woman, Her Majesty proved when she accompanied the King to India. It is the testimony of those who know the country that this visit was productive of great good.

There are many who laugh at the strictness of Queen Mary, and others who criticize her attitude towards conduct which the fashionable world is ready to condone, but the women of the Empire revere the young wife who is resolved that evil shall not enter into her home, even if that home be a court.

By encouraging the manufacture of the finest fabrics and by her use of them on state occasions, the Queen has shown herself a patriotic Englishwoman.

Thousands, perhaps tens of thousands, of poor women are making a good livelihood by fine needlework, because Queen Mary herself loves to embroider and is an intelligent and generous patron of needlework guilds. Her visits with the King to the centres of industry show the Queen's determination to understand the people, their aims, their sorrows and joys.

As a mother, the Queen has shown herself wise and watchful, as well as affectionate, and she is the constant companion of her husband. It is such things more, than her bearing in state ceremonials, that endear the Queen to the people of the Empire.

The Normal School

The news that the Normal School building for Victoria will be begun in the near future is very welcome to the mothers and daughters of Victoria. The opportunity which a fully equipped Normal School will give the young women of Vancouver Island to prepare themselves to be teachers is of the greatest importance.

The business of teaching is one in which the best of our young women can find the opportunity not only of earning a livelihood, but of doing good. Many mothers hesitate to allow young daughters to leave home in order to attend the Normal School, and for that reason many, who would have made excellent teachers have, heretofore, adopted some other calling. With a training school at home, there will be less inducement to do this.

The Province is being settled so rapidly that every year teachers from other Provinces and from Great Britain are added to the roll. Even with these there is always a demand for more teachers and this demand will grow. No more worthy ambition can be placed before a young woman than that of fitting herself to be an accomplished teacher.

In the past, the cities of British Columbia have been forced either to bring in domestic science teachers from abroad or to send their daughters either to Toronto or to Montreal to fit themselves to take charge of the classes. Now, with a training school of our own we will be in a position to prepare domestic science teachers for all the cities of our own Province and, it is more than likely that students from other Provinces and States will avail themselves of the opportunities for training in this woman's department.

In introducing technical training into the Normal School, the Province is following the example of all progressive countries, and in placing this department under Mr. George H. Dean, the department has chosen a man who has proved himself an excellent teacher.

Victoria has reason to be grateful to the Government and especially to the Minister of Education, Dr. H. E. Young, for establishing a Normal School here. It depends largely on the character of the students that come from its homes and its schools whether it shall become such an institution as the whole Province shall be proud of.

Folk Dancing

The revival of folk dancing on this continent is one of the features of the beginning of the twentieth century. It began in the schools of New York in order to bring brightness into the lives of little and older children who seemed fated to poverty and unhappiness.

In Great Britain the same end has been accomplished by the pageants that bring before the people the life of a bygone time. The teachers in the tenement districts of New York conceived the idea that music and dancing would do good to the little people, not only physically, but morally and intellectually. Some of them devoted their time to learning the simpler of the dances and teaching the children after hours.

The effect has been so good that the movement has spread throughout the schools, and now there are many thousands of children, big as well as little, dancing on the roofs or in the basements, or covered courts.

These dances are especially intended for girls and take the place with them of the organized games, such as football, cricket and baseball for boys. They are not intended as substitutes for gymnastics. These are meant to counteract the stooping and other evils that follow the sedentary occupations of the schoolroom.

But dancing is a pure delight and not a matter of duty or of work. One of the foremost advocates of this form of recreation is Dr. Luther H. Gulick, whose reputation in matters of health is international. In a book called "The Healthful Art of Dancing," Dr. Gulick gives the history of this movement in New York and argues in its favor.

In our own city all who have the charge of young girls recognize the necessity of healthful forms of outdoor exercise. In folk dancing the most graceful and the best of the games of different nations have been selected, suitable music has been found, and the dances prove the most delightful form of play. It is being recognised that unless young people are given innocent pleasures, they are likely to be drawn into those that are not harmless. It is well worth the while of women's societies to examine into this movement for the introduction of folk dancing, not as a form of public entertainment, but as a part of the everyday life of our girls. If it will make them healthier, happier and stronger, there should be a movement for its introduction on the part of Victoria mothers. If, on the contrary, it can be shown that the introduction of folk dances has in any way tended to hurt the children and the girls, it should not become one of the amusements, either of our schools, our homes or our places of public amusement.

In this growing city there must be many women who are in a position to speak with authority on the effect of these dances on the young people of the cities. Letters from these ladies would be welcomed. Most of us recognize that it is of little use opposing evil unless we can substitute good.

DROUGHT KILLS CHANCE FOR A WHEAT HARVEST

Lack of Rain at Kaifeng-fu Serious—Parents Sell Children—Authorities Do Nothing

KAIFENG-FU, May 6.—Kaifeng-fu is still without rain. There was another severe dust storm today. All prospects of a wheat harvest this Spring have vanished.

Great numbers of families from the country districts are already moving in search of food. In many instances parents are selling their children for small sums while, to make matters worse, much sickness is prevalent and the mortality is very high.

The officials and gentry have hitherto taken no practical steps to deal with the situation which, in a month's time, will be very acute.

The party which is making a preliminary survey of the Kaifeng-Suchow railway is expected to arrive here shortly. They are beginning the survey from the Suchow end.

CHINA DIVIDED INTO EIGHT MILITARY DISTRCTS

General Li Kead of Hupeh and Honan—Martial Law Over Wide Territory

PEKIN, May 6.—On the strength of the Bill which lately was passed by the Advisory Council and which provides for dividing China into eight large military districts, the Ministry of War has commenced with forming one such district from the Provinces of Hupeh and Hunan.

One of the two Generals who are to be at the head of the district is Vice-President Li Yuan-hung, to whom the supreme military power, especially the movements of troops, the appointments and dismissals of officers, the right to punish and the administration, is entrusted conjointly with the Tutu of each of the two Provinces.

Martial law has been extended from inner Mongolia to the Provinces of Turkestan, Kansug, Shansi, Shensi, Chihli and Manchuria.

Here! Men of Moderate Hair

Read This HERPICIDE

You will often see a man who fulfills your ideal of a man in almost every particular. He may have a good head, fine physique, perfect manners, an interesting personality and bear himself with the distinguished air of a gentleman. His linen is immaculate and his clothes faultless as to cut and material. But all the pleasant first impressions are ruined when you discover the collar and shoulders of his coat covered with loose hair and flakes of dandruff.

This is an indication of personal carelessness, not to say uncleanliness. You feel like telling him to get a bottle of Newbro's Herpicide, and if you are a real friend to him you WILL tell him. This remarkable remedy would in a short time remove every trace of dandruff from his head, stop his hair from falling and prevent him from becoming bald. Bald-headed men always look old, whether they are or not.

Dandruff is due to a germ which causes the scale-like accumulation. Newbro's Herpicide, used intelligently, checks this accumulation, prevents the hair from falling out and stops that frightful itching of the scalp almost instantly. It has a most delightful odor.

Herpicide is the Original Remedy that destroys dandruff. There is nothing in the world just like it, nothing that is just as good.

Newbro's Herpicide in 50c and $1.00 sizes is sold by all dealers who guarantee it to do all that is claimed. If you are not satisfied your money will be refunded.

Applications obtained at all good barber shops.

Send 10c in postage for a sample bottle and booklet to The Herpicide Co., Dept. R., Detroit, Mich.

LOCAL REFEREES FOR LACROSSE

Four Victorians Selected to Handle All the Professional Lacrosse Games in British Columbia This Season.

At a meeting of the British Columbia Lacrosse Association, held in the Empress Hotel last night, four local men were unanimously selected to referee all games this season, provided that they are in a position to do so. The four are: Fred White, Robert Dewar, Herbert Jesse and Fred Cullin.

It was decided that two men should handle each game. The pair for the opening contest will be picked from the hat, the others will officiate in the next game and so on alternately. In case any of the officials should not be able to act in any of the games he or they are designated to have charge of, a substitute or substitutes will be appointed by the president. The association went on record as being opposed to a constant change of referees, as has prevailed in the past, and in order to avoid this as far as possible it was resolved that in case of a complaint from the manager of either contesting team the president should have power to either throw out or sustain the complaint. But in case either manager should consider it absolutely necessary that further action be taken after the president had upheld a referee he could have a meeting of the association called to go thoroughly into the complaint by getting the consent of the third club president, which this year will, of course, always be a Victorian, Mr. John Virtue in all probability.

It was thought unlikely, however, that the president's decisions when called for would be questioned, but whether or not an occasion should ever arise for an attempt to overrule him there was no doubt it was fully believed, that the referee question would be more satisfactorily answered by the foregoing plan than it had been when the managers of the teams had the entire say in the matter.

The referees will be paid at the rate of $50 each per game.

Previous to the consideration of the knotty referee problem the association appointed Mr. Harry Cowan, of Vancouver, to represent the Coast League at a conference in Winnipeg, the purpose of which is to draw up a working plan for the commission which, it has been settled, is to govern lacrosse. Mr. Cowan will meet a representative of the Dominion Lacrosse Association, of Eastern Canada, at Winnipeg in a few weeks time, and they, in conjunction with a King's Counsel, will outline the constitution of the commission. This may be elaborated later on. No interference will be made with the constitution of either league. The important article of the agreement will specify that no player properly signed with any club can play for another club except by mutual arrangement.

There were present at last night's meeting: President A. E. Killington, Secretary F. J. Lynch, J. A. Virtue, Lionel Yorke, W. E. Ditchburn, W. C. Moresby and E. McDonald representing Victoria; Con Jones representing Vancouver and Tom Gifford representing New Westminster.

HODGE AND MEEK MEET ON ALLEYS

Marsh Hodge, Vancouver's champion bowler, and Harry Meek, of the Victoria baseball team, captained teams in an interesting series of bowling matches at the Brunswick Alleys last night. Four sets were rolled for a side bet, the result being an even break, two wins apiece. The bowling was consistently good, but no very high scores were compiled. Meek had as his partner, Chisholm, of Vancouver, while Hodge rolled with Doyle, also of Vancouver.

Y. M. C. A. Athletics

Last night at an organization meeting of the Y. M. C. A. Athletic Club, Mr. R. P. Christie was elected president and Mr. H. Whitcomb, secretary. Two practices a week are to be held, that on Tuesdays being the harrier run at 9 p. m., starting from the building, and the other on Fridays at 6:30 on the Oak Bay ground for track athletics. The baseball club had a most successful practice last night, not less than twenty men turning out at Beacon Hill.

FRAGMENTS OF SPORT

Date for Yacht Race

NEW YORK, May 6.—The New York A. C. has chosen June 21 as the date for the first race for the $2,500 Viking cup offered by Sir Thomas Lipton for cruising motor boats of a water-line length between 30 and 38 feet. The course will be from New Rochelle, through Long Island Sound to Rock Island, 100 miles.

Cricket Season Opens

LONDON, May 6.—The cricket season is having a forlorn opening. The M. C. C. vs. Middlesex match has been abandoned without starting play owing to a wet wicket.

Decoteau Coming

Hal Beasley, track captain of the J. B. A. A., got back from a visit to Edmonton yesterday. Beasley saw Decoteau, Canada's champion five-miler, while there, and the former practically promised to compete in the track meet here during Carnival Week.

Lindsay Returns

Bert Lindsay, goaltender of the Victoria Hockey team, returned from the East yesterday. Lindsay has sold out his bowling alley business in Renfrew and it is his intention to settle permanently in Victoria if he can find suitable employment.

Hap Morse Leaves Town

Hap Morse of the Victoria baseball team, was turned over to Medicine Hat last night. The club is still looking for another outfielder and a pitcher.

Curling Meeting

A meeting of the members of the Victoria Curling Club and others interested in the sport, will be held in McLaren & Main's office, Hayward Block, Thursday night at 8 o'clock sharp. The business will be the consideration of estimates submitted for the erection of rinks here.

Campbell Will Challenge

Ray Campbell's victory over Dick Hyland at Steveston last Saturday has brought him right in line to challenge the winner of the Barrieau-Bayley bout on May 24, and Campbell announces his intention of doing so.

THORPE'S PRIZES ARE PASSED ON

Committee of Olympic Games Decides to Give Trophies to Weislander and Bie, of Sweden and Norway.

GENEVA, Switzerland, May 6.—The prizes won at the Olympic Games at Stockholm by James Thorpe, the Carlisle Indian athlete, will be awarded to the man who finished second in the events. The international committee of the Olympic Games so decided today on action of the American delegates.

The Thorpe case came up in a private session. Thorpe, who, after the games at Stockholm, confessed to professionalism, was the winner of the much-coveted trophies. These trophies will now go to H. Weislander, of Sweden, and F. R. Bie, of Norway, respectively. The committee unanimously adopted the British proposal to send congratulations to the Amateur Athletic Union for the sportsmanlike manner in which the American organization had handled the case.

ANARCHY IS THREATENED

Representatives of Papers in Session at Saskatoon Make Effort for Direct British News

SASKATOON, Sask., May 6.—Representatives of the western newspapers dealt with import business at three sessions held yesterday in the board of trade room.

A matter of particular interest was the question of an improved British cable service. It was the desire of the western newspapers to get more direct British news written for Canadian readers to supplement the Associated Press service. To that end a committee composed of J. A. Aikin, of the Saskatoon Phoenix, Wm. Davidson of The Calgary Albertan and E. J. McMillan, of the Moose Jaw News was appointed to negotiate in the matter.

Questions affecting the general news service for both the morning and evening papers was thoroughly discussed with the manager of the Western Associated Press, Mr. J. Fred Lindsay, and all matters in connection with the service now being provided by this organization.

The knowledge that M. E. Nicholles, president of the association, was to sever his conection was the reason for a motion presented by J. H. Woods, Calgary, and W. F. Kerr, Regina, which was unanimously carried.

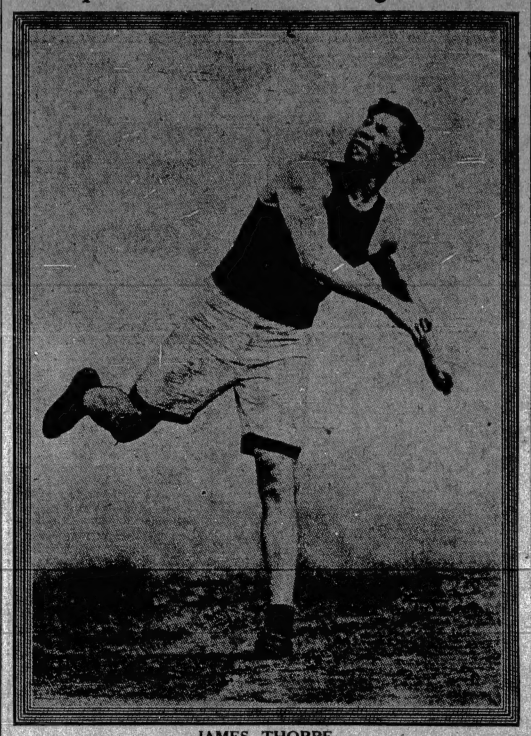

"That this association has heard with profound regret of the intention of Mr. Nicholles, president of the W. A. P., of severing his conection with the association, and that a committee be and is hereby appointed to draft a formal resolution which will express our appreciation of his services to the W. A. P., and to the Western newspapers generally."

The death of one of the first members, F. J. Deane, of Cranbrook, B. C., was deeply regretted and the feelings of the members were expressed in a motion by G. M. Thompson, Calgary, and E. J. McMillan.

The hosts of the visiting newspapermen were thanked most heartily for their hospitality.

In Charge of City Playgrounds—Messrs. W. Smaill and T. H. Dinas have been appointed to take charge of the city playgrounds during the season. The girls will be in charge of Miss Jarvis, who supervised their games last year, and another lady is to be found to undertake similar work in the other of the two parks.

Thorpe's Case is Finally Settled

JAMES THORPE

ment, the head of which was opposed to them. They had, however, never done so.

Mr. Asquith said the bill would create 6,000,000 new voters, and it had never been approved by the existing electorate. He continued:

"Would our political fabric be strengthened; would our social and domestic life be enriched; would our standard of manners, and by manners I mean the old-fashioned virtues of chivalry, courtesy and interdependence of the sexes on one another, be raised or refined if women were given the vote?"

Cries of "Of course they would" were raised on all sides of the House.

The Premier strongly denied that Parliament had been neglectful of women, and said he saw no evidences that British women as a whole wanted the vote.

Sir Edward in Support

Sir Edward Grey, Secretary for Foreign Affairs, supported the bill. He said there was ample evidence that a very large section of the women of the country had shown by constitutional means that they favored the enfranchisement of their sex.

Militancy he characterized as the "inconsiderate and criminal conduct of a small body of individuals, with whose outrages the law had dealt and ought to deal severely."

Nobody, he said, had greater reason to deplore the methods of the militant suffragettes than those who desired the enfranchisement of women, but he argued that their outrages should not influence the decision of the House.

Women argued that women were fitted to deal with social and industrial matters of legislation, which vitally affected their interests, but that they were not fitted to deal with the questions of foreign policy. He contended that the demonstrated attitude of women in dealing with abstruse economic questions involved in social and industrial legislation proved that they were possessed of sufficient intelligence to pass judgment on questions of foreign policy which were far less complicated and seldom an issue at a general election.

Lord Robert Cecil, advocated the bill, contended that to vote against it because of militant outrages would be utterly illegal and unworthy of the standard of intelligence claimed by members of the House.

Disgrace to the Country

Rt. Hon. Walter Hume Long, in opposing the measure first congratulated the Prime Minister on the ability and calm dignity displayed in his speech, despite the treatment he had received at the hands of the suffragettes, which, he took occasion to say, "is a disgrace to the country." He argued that the passage of the bill would not stop militant tactics but would only lead to fiercer agitation for a larger measure of enfranchisement.

Rt. Hon. Frederick E. Smith said the supporters of the bill repudiated the militants when it suited them, but would use them as long as it paid to do so. It was not until 1906, when militancy began, that a single member of the House took the movement seriously. The great majority of the women, he maintained, were indifferent to the franchise. The country had never been consulted on the question. Under such circumstances, therefore, for the Unionists to vote for the bill would be grossly inconsistent with their Opposition to Home Rule on the ground that the electorate had given no mandate for it.

A motion to reject the bill was carried by 266 to 219.

Port Coquitlam will submit to the rate payers on the 14th bylaws to provide for city hall, waterworks and new schools.

TO STANDARDIZE BOXING CLASSES

Effort Being Made to Interest Lord Lonsdale in Movement —Fred Welsh, the English Boxer, Writes His Lordship.

NEW YORK, May 6.—The New York Athletic Association, through its secretary, Mr. Charles J. Harvey, is trying to enlist the support and endorsement of Lord Lonsdale in an effort to bring about an international standardization of boxing weights and Harvey has requested Freddie Welsh, the lightweight champion, to communicate with his lordship. Lonsdale has taken quite an interest in Welsh's career and has written to him upon numerous occasions in matters relative to ring affairs. So when Harvey asked Welsh to communicate with Lonsdale, Freddie wrotae the following letter:

The Right Honorable Earl of Lonsdale, Lowther Castle, Penrith, Cumberland, England:

My Lord—I have been requested by Mr. Charles J. Harvey, the secretary of the New York Athletic Commission, whose letter I herewith enclose, to write to ask if your Lordship will graciously lend your assistance to a movement, which has been started by the Commission, to bring about an international standardization of the different weights which now govern championship boxing matches. Your Lordship's well known interest in the art of self-defence, and the fact that you are recognized throughout the world as the highest authority upon such matters combine to make your opinion of incalculable value. In this, the Empire State of the United States of America, professional boxing is governed and regulated by a State Commission whose powers have been granted by the State Legislature, and a wonderful amount of good has been accomplished by the Commission in the way of eliminating unfair tactics upon the part of both boxers and club managers.

If as prominent a patron of the sport as your Lordship could spare a little time for this cause not only would Great Britain and America come to an amicable agreement about the standardization of boxing weights but all other matters governing this sport could be settled and recognized universally. With your Lordship at the head of such a movement the sport of boxing can be placed upon a footing of cleanliness and true sportsmanship unheard of in the past.—Yours most respectfully.

FRED WELSH.

P. S.—I enclose herewith a copy of the by-laws which contain a list of the weights as adopted by the Commission.

The Commission's scale of weights is: Paper, 108; Bantam, 115; Feather, 125; Light, 135; Welter, 145; Middle, 158; Commission, 175; Heavy, all over 176. The English scale is: Fly, 112; Bantam, 118; Feather, 125; Light, 135; Welter, 147; Middle, 160; Heavy, all over 160.

McGINNITY TOO MUCH FOR BEES

"Iron Man" Always Master of Situation in Yesterday's Ball Game—Smith's Pitching Weak and Support Shaky.

League Standing

"Iron Man" McGinnity pitched wonderful ball yesterday and the Tacoma Tigers won hands down. The veteran had nothing much on the ball but notwithstanding the apparent simplicity of his delivery was always complete master of the situation. His marvelous control and rapid fire action upset the equanimity of the Bee batsmen and didn't give them a chance at any stage to collect their thoughts. The old master was cute enough to realize the necessity of keeping them off their balance once he got them there and he never eased up, for against his sort of pitching a batting rally is apt to b dangerous if once started. But, however, that may be the fact remains that the Bees never did get properly set and came through the contest with an ignominious plank. Final score, 7 to 0.

While McGinnity was cutting down the Bees with such dispatch that the last man in from the field was hardly seated on the bench before he had to toddle out again the Bengals were making merry at Slim Smith's expense. Only two innings passed in which they did not get some hits and their heavy batting coupled with poor fielding on the part of the home team made the business of getting runs easy for them. Lou Nordyke was the most effective stick-er. In the first and third he drove in runs and in the fifth scored himself.

Fielding of the most brilliant variety was put up by the visitors, but far otherwise was the support given Smith. Undoubtedly the latter deserved the beating meted out to him but two or three of the Bengals' runs are directly chargeable to a shaky defence behind him. Rawlings in particular was off color.

One of the bright features of the game was the manner in which Umpire Eddinger, who replaced Toman, hustled it through. Eddinger eliminated all loafing and, with capable assistance from McGinnity, completed the contest in 1 hour and 15 minutes, a record for the Northwestern League this season. Eddinger will officiate here all this week, Toman having gone to Portland.

Portland Gets Good One

PORTLAND, Ore., May 6.—Stanley, who was turned over to Portland Northwestern team by the Portland Coast Club Sunday last, pitched his first game today and acquitted himself with glory. He was opposed by McIvor, the high school boy, who pitched a good game for Seattle, the serious difference between him and the Portland twirler being that Stanley was airtight in the pinches and McIvor was not.

COLWOOD INSTITUTE HONORS LECTURERS

Cordial Reception Tendered Mrs. A. T. Watt and Mrs. E. M. Hutchinson, Appointed by Agriculture Department.

On Monday afternoon the Colwood Institute gave a cordial reception to Mrs. A. T. Watt and Mrs. E. M. Hutchinson, the lecturers appointed by the Department of Agriculture to address the Spring meeting of the Women's Institutes of Vancouver Island.

The meeting was held in the suite of assembly room, dressing room and kitchen which the Women's Institute has added to the public hall of the district. A piano and a library have also been purchased by these enterprising ladies. The room was gay with flowers from bulbs imported last Fall from Holland by Colwood and Metchosin Institutes.

Besides the Institute women and three of the School Trustees, twenty-six of the pupils of Colwood School were present to hear the talk on school gardens given by Mrs. Hutchinson. The children listened intently while the speaker gave an account of what had been done by children in England, Russia, Germany and other European countries to beautify their school grounds and to learn gardening. The boys seemed quite to realize the significance of an increased output—nearly double in Germany—from a decreased agricultural population. The work of Mr. Clapp in investigating European ideas and adapting them to American needs was touched upon and a plan of school work in one school in Brookline, Mass., described.

Keep Approaches in Order

The children of this school keep the approaches to the building in perfect order and Mrs. Hutchinson suggested that such a service combined with caring for native wild flowers and the beautiful flowering shrubs of Vancouver Island would soon make our highways a source of national pride.

The boys listened with great interest while Mrs. Hutchinson told how thirty-five boys in Carleton Co. succeeded in raising more potatoes than the best of the old farmers. Each boy cultivated a tenth of an acre. The average production for the district in 1912 was 124 bushels an acre. The average for twenty-two of the boys was at the rate of 288 bushels an acre and for the six prize winners of over 300 an acre.

At the close of the talk the children were dismissed with an invitation to come to tea after school. Colwood shares with Royal Oak the honor of being the first institute in the Province to take up school garden work.

Mrs. Watt reported on various phases of child welfare work taken up by Eastern institutes and advocated better sanitary conditions in the schools, better out buildings and better home care.

Holds Baby Competition

One institute, the speaker said, had held a baby competition, not a beauty show, but a demonstration of how normal babies can be kept in health. Mothers and trained nurses acted as pupils. An eager discussion followed, after which tea was served.

In the evening Mrs. Hutchinson gave an account of the Lethbridge convention and laid before the institute the plan of monthly competitions, preparatory to the Fall fair. Such demonstrations would have great educative value. When this talk was over, the men and women present asked for further information concerning school gardens. This furnished a topic on which only the lateness of the hour ended the discussion.

DEATH SUMMONS BISHOP CRIDGE

lliac, and half unconsciously those who passed by might have paraphrased Shelley's sayins of his friend Keats, "It makes one almost in love with death to be buried in so sweet a place."

A Keen Musician

The bishop was a keen musician, and his performances on the 'cello were much enjoyed by those friends who were privileged to hear him. Sixty years ago he assisted in the formation of the Cambridge University Musical Society, and took part in a number of concerts given by that body. Among those who were connected with him at the time were Lord Kelvin and Mr. Dykes, the well-known composer of hymn tunes. Last Easter the bishop was made the recipient of an interesting presentation, when he received a copy of the Book of Admissions to Peterhouse, or St. Peter's College, Cambridge, where he graduated, and of which, by virtue of his age, he was senior member. Among the bishop's dearest treasures were three photographs of His Present Majesty the King, the Queen and three of their children. When Their Majesties, then Duke and Duchess of York, visited Victoria in 1901, the bishop and Mrs. Cridge were invited to the state dinner given for them at Government House by Sir Henri Joly de Lotbiniere. Both conversed at length with the Royal visitors, who afterwards sent them their photographs as souveniers of the visit. Although he was able to see a little, the bishop passed the last few years of his life in comparative darkness.

Was Partially Blind

His partial blindness fell with terrific suddenness. About four years ago, as he opened his paper one morning at breakfast, he found that his sight had almost gone, and although he recovered sufficiently to be able to see people and even pictures, he was deprived of the power of reading. As is generally known, he was one of the original provisional committee appointed by Sir James Douglas to arrange for the building of the Royal Jubilee Hospital, and was also interested in the erection of the Protestant Orphanage, the Y. M. C. A. and the old Marine Hospital on the former Indian Reserve, which was destroyed by fire. He read the opening prayers at the first Parliament in Vancouver Island, which assembled the year after his arrival. On the occasion of Queen Victoria's Diamond Jubilee he addressed a huge crowd in Beacon Hill Park, and in 1899 blessed the soldiers who went out to the South African war.

It is expected that the funeral will take place on Friday at 2:30 p. m., from the residence to the Reformed Episcopal Church, where service will be held at 3:30. Rev. C. E. Wincott, rector of St. Paul Reformed Episcopal Church, New Westminster, has been asked to assist Rev. T. W. Gladstone in the service, and a special pew will be set apart for the clergy and ministers of other denominations wishing to attend.

The special general meeting of the Reformed Episcopal Church, which was called for tomorrow, Thursday, evening, has been postponed until further notice.

THE LATE MRS. CRIDGE

His Career

In the career of the late Right Reverend Edward Cridge, Bishop of the Reformed Episcopal Church of British Columbia, much of the history of the Episcopal Church in Western Canada is bound up. Throughout his remarkably long lifetime he carried out the work of his Master with a faithfulness never surpassed and, in his daily life, he lived his religion to an extent that caused him to be beloved of all. His memory will be revered as the memory of one of God's saints on earth and his passing will mark the close of an epoch in the development of Christian work in this part of the world.

Edward Cridge was born in Devonshire, at Bratton Flemin, on the 17th of December, 1817, and came of good English lineage. His father, John was a schoolmaster; his mother was a Miss Grace Dyer before she married. She died when Edward was a small child. The father lived to be sixty-three years of age. Under the tutelage of his father Bishop Cridge had more than ordinary opportunity to acquire the basis for an excellent education Later he attended the schools of North Milton and South Milton and afterwards was third master in the Grammer School at Oundle, Northamptonshire. His education was finished at St. Peter's College, Cambridge, where he graduated with an A. B. degree. He took up the study of theology at once having, by this time, elected for the church. He passed the theological examination in Cambridge in 1848 and was ordained in Norfolk. Soon afterwards he was appointed assistant curate of the church of North Walsham, Norfolk, also acting as second master of the school in that city. Later he was for a time in charge of the church at Stratford, Essex, and while there one of his friends, a man who taught a class in his Sunday School and was prominent in the work of the church, was Mr. Charles Hayward, who came to Victoria not long after Bishop and Mrs. Cridge. When Mr. Hayward arrived here Bishop Cridge was the first man to meet him. During the many years following Mr. Hayward was one of the Bishop's strongest supporters and warmest friends.

At West Ham, London

In 1851 Rev. Mr. Cridge was appointed to the charge of Christ District Church at West Ham, London. He remained there until 1854 when he was appointed chaplain of the Hudson's Bay Company for Vancouver Island. This was an important event in his career. Before leaving home to assume the new duties devolving upon him in the far wilderness of Canada, he was married in 1854 in the parish church of West Ham to Miss Mary Winmill, a native of England. Their honeymoon trip was the long, arduous journey to the land which then seemed to be the end of the world. Mrs. Cridge proved to be the highest ideal of helpmeet. In every phase of his life her husband found her true and faithful, loving and helpful. She did more than a woman's share in assisting her husband in the field to which he came and she too left her mark on the history of Christian work in this western country. Mrs. Cridge died in December, 1905.

In his appointment to Vancouver Island, Rev. Mr. Cridge was successor to the first chaplain and preceptor sent to the colony from England, viz., the Rev. Robert J. Staines who, accompanied by his wife, arrived at Victoria in 1849. He and his wife occupied one of the buildings within the fort enclosure as residence, and the same structure served also as a school and church. In 1853 a number of the residents became dissatisfied with the Company's rule and decided to petition the home Government setting forth their grievances and asking for relief. Mr. Staines was decided upon as their delegate. He started in a sailing ship late in 1853 but the vessel was caught in a squall off Cape Flattery and sank. Mr. Staines was in his cabin and was not able to reach the deck. Mrs. Staines, who is recorded to have been "a splendid teacher and preceptress," returned to England soon after her husband's death.

Arrived in Victoria

Consequently, when Rev. Mr. Cridge and his wife arrived in Victoria in 1855, they came to a field where all their abilities of tact and patience and loving sympathy were needed. They were popular from the first and had soon made a warm place for themselves in the hearts of the colonists of all creeds and all nationalities. Under an agreement made with the Hudson's Bay Company, August 12, 1854, Mr. Cridge was to receive as remuneration for his services:

(1) A parsonage and glebe of 100 acres, of which thirty acres will be cleared and put into cultivatable state; (2) A stipend of three hundred pounds per annum charged with the sanction of the Colonial Office on the fund arising from the sale of land, of which funds the Company are trustees, etc. (3) An allowance of one hundred pounds per annum from the fur branch of the Company for acting as chaplain to the Company and attending to the wants of the servants. . . . . Until a house is furnished quarters will be provided for the clergyman in the fort. And, until the land is put in a proper state of cultivation, rations will be allowed to him and his family, as provided for the officers of the Company. When the land is taken possession of by him he will be expected to provide for himself.

The Company think it very desirable that the clergyman should, as is done at Red River by the Bishop of Rupert's Land, take charge of a boarding school of a superior class, for the children of their officers and would wish that he would take out with him a gentleman and his wife capable of keeping a school of this nature.

The fur trade branch will find a school house and residence for the master and family, and will vote an annual grant of one hundred pounds in aid of the school. Should they give satisfaction to the gentlemen in this country, they might expect from thirty to forty pupils and the usual payment for each pupil would be twenty pounds per annum for board, lodging and education.

A free passage will be allowed from London to Vancouver Island to the clergyman, his family and servants, and also to the schoolmaster and his family.

Free Passage Home

It is understood that the engagement will be for five years, at the expiration of which a free passage home will be granted, should the clergyman wish to return or, on the contrary, a fresh engagement may be entered into. It is understood that in the event of misconduct, the engagement may at any time be cancelled on the recommendation of the Governor of Vancouver Island, and with the sanction of the Secretary of State for the Colonies.

(Signed) A. Colville, Governor, Hudson's Bay House, London, August 12, 1854.

The portion of the agreement referring to the schoolmaster and his wife was not carried into effect, but Mrs. Cridge took up the excellent work started by Mrs. Staines and opened a boarding house for ladies. Public schools were opened shortly after the arrival of Rev. Mr. Cridge and his wife, and the former was appointed first Honorary Superintendent of Education.

For Company's Fort

At this time Victoria was in the very early stages of its development. The fur company's fort with its long, wide enclosure and jutting bastions was the principal feature. In 1856 Bishop Cridge acted as chaplain at the opening of the first House of Assembly and in that same year the first church was erected at Victoria. It was called Christ Church, and stood on the site of the present church of that name, the cathedral. In 1868 this church was burned down. In 1872 it was re-built by the congregation. Shortly after this the second very important step in Bishop Cridge's career was taken. In 1860 Rev. George Hills, D.D., was sent to Victoria as the first bishop and a reorganization took place. In 1858, following the gold rush in Cariboo, Victoria suddenly became a town of importance and the main denominations were represented by clergymen. Prior to this all the colonists, of whatever creed, had attended the services held by Rev. Mr. Cridge who was revered and admired by everyone. Soon after the arrival of Bishop Hills, Mr. Cridge resigned his chaplaincy of the Hudson's Bay Company and was licensed by the new bishop and installed as dean. When the burned cathedral was rebuilt, at the ceremony of consecration following, Archdeacon Reece was officiating. Before this there had been some slight friction between Mr. Cridge and his superiors in the church

HIS LAST MESSAGE

To the Rector and Congregation of the Church of Our Lord, Victoria:

My love and blessing to you, beloved brethren and fellow-witnesses to the truth, on this anniversary of the resurrection of Jesus Christ our Lord from the dead.

Although remembering that, while every Sunday the same glorious light dawns upon the soul of every believer, it has come into my mind to bring before you this Eastertide the preaching of Jesus to those who already believe in the forgiveness of sins through faith in His name. It is as follows: "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because the Lord hath anointed me to preach good tidings to the meek." Here the Lord makes it plain that the meek are those who, though they believe in the forgiveness of sins through the first preaching, still continue to need another preaching through His name, as it is written: "They shall call His name Jesus, for He shall save His people from their sins." And thus He continues to preach the same Gospel of forgiveness to the meek, though they be already forgiven.

Let us, then, who meekly believe in Jesus as our Saviour, hear His preaching as to ourselves and so walk worthy of the vocation wherewith we are called as His people. "Come, ye children." He says, "hearken unto Me; I will teach you the fear of the Lord." "Keep thy tongue from evil, and thy lips that they speak no guile; depart from evil, and do good; seek peace and pursue it, for the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, and His ears are open to their cry."

Thus, following Him who is the Shepherd and Overseer of our souls in the first resurrection by faith, we shall by the same faith rise from our graves with that great multitude whom no man can number who have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

May the blessing of Him who rose from the dead be yours this Easter, and every Lord's Day, until you come to His everlasting kingdom, is the prayer of your fellow-servant in Christ.

EDWARD CRIDGE.

BANKER IS IMPRESSED WITH BRITISH COLUMBIA

Prominent Londoner Concludes Tour of Inspection Through Northern Part of Province—Good Field for Investment.

European investors are heavily interested in British Columbia's development, and for the past two weeks Mr. H. E. de Pury of London, England, who is connected with the firm of de Pury, Gautschi & Co., and de Pury & Co., Neuchatel, Switzerland, has been visiting different points in the Province making an inspection of the varied interests of his financial affiliations. He has just returned from Prince Rupert and the Skeena River country.

Mr. de Pury is a banker, and is viewing British Columbia from the viewpoint of security for his client(s' investments. He is greatly impressed with the vastness of the natural resources of the Province, and not unmindful of the potentialities of augmented trade reasonably to be expected from the opening of the Panama Canal and the awakening of Asia and its influence on transpacific commercial activities.

"British Columbia is proving an attractive field for the European investor," said Mr. de Pury. In the midst of the plethora of investments offering the difficulty is to select those of outstanding excellence where all are first-class. Europeans have consistently made money through investing in British Columbia projects, and it is my prediction that much more money will be made."

Mr. de Pury, while stating that the money market of Europe were tight at present, due to the shadow of a great European war, said that he expected that the influence of Sir Edward Grey, Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs for Great Britain, would bring about peace on a basis that would insure stability to securities. Great Britain, he said, is still acknowledged to be the paramount power in European issues, and liberty and justice were still her watchwords.

over the question of the introduction of ritualism to which the former was strongly opposed. In his remarks at the ceremony of consecration Archdeacon Reece referred to the future of the church intimating that the offices would be conducted with more ritual. Dean Cridge, speaking afterwards, denied that such an innovation would take place. This led to trouble which resulted in his secession. A large part of the congregation, who sympathized with him very keenly and who agreed with him, went with him. Foremost among these was the Governor, Sir James Douglas, Senator W. J. Macdonald, Mr. W. B. Pierce and Mr. Charles Hayward.

Reformed Episcopal Church

About this time two clergymen high up in the established church in the eastern States, Bishop Cumming and Bishop Cheney, of Chicago, seceded and set about establishing a Reformed Episcopal Church. Consequently Rev. Mr. Cridge went to Chicago and met these men. By them he was ordained the first bishop in Western Canada and as Edward Pacific, he undertook his new duties. He first went to the Old Country where he licensed a number of clergymen in the new church and then returned to Victoria. His old friends flocked about him here and it was decided to erect a new edifice. Sir James Douglas donated a site on Humboldt Street and there the Church of Our Lord was built and is being used to this day. Sir James also presented the congregation with an organ.

This church was Bishop Cridge's home church from that time to the end. Here he effected the ministrations of his office in the simple saintly manner that was indicative of his true character. For many years he preached from its pulpit and when, like Milton, he was afflicted so that he could not carry on the work as actively as formerly, he still attended the services and enriched and helped the life of the parish and, in fact, of the whole community, by his practical, every-day Christianity. In September, 1908, Bishop Cridge preached in the Church of Our Lord for the last time. It was little realized then that it would be his last sermon, but within a week the light left his eyes forever in this world, and he went on to the end of the road by the spiritual light that came from within.

Death of Mrs. Cridge

Mrs. Cridge died in December, 1905, at the close of a career of usefulness in Christ's Kingdom on earth that few women have it given them to equal. Her death was one of the severe blows which her noble husband bore with patience and fortitude. Bishop and Mrs. Cridge had many children, several of whom died. Four of them, three sons and a daughter, passed away within a few days of one another, of scarlet fever in 1897. A remarkable coincidence was the fact that the Archbishop of Canterbury and his wife lost four of their children at the same time. The Bishop's eldest son, Mr. Richard Coombe Cridge, who practiced for some years as a civil engineer in the Sandwich Islands, passed away in 1905, leaving one son, Mr. Edward Cridge, purser of the Prince George. Bishop Cridge is survived by three daughters, Mrs. J. Cran, wife of the former manager of the Bank of British North America at Ashcroft; they have four children and reside at Duncan, Mr. Cran having retired; Mrs. Thomas Herbert Laundy, wife of an official of the Canadian Bank of Commerce; they have six children and reside in Victoria; and Miss Maude Cridge who, lived at home with her father until the latter's death.

Until Mrs. Cridge passed away and the family was more or less broken up, the Bishop's residence and the family home was a commodious and pleasant house on Carr Street erected by the Bishop in 1876. This homestead was hallowed by long years of happy family life. Surrounding it were three acres of ground in which Bishop Cridge used to delight to work. Practically all of the many improvements were placed there by his own hands. Fruit trees, ornamental shrubs and flowers, all of them held a personal interest for the kindly head of the Reformed Church. The homestead was called Marifield in honor of Mrs. Cridge, whose Christian name was Mary.

Great Lover of Music

The late Bishop Cridge was a great lover of music and was himself a musician of many parts. He was an accomplished 'cellist and it was a delight to his friends to hear him play. About 1856 he was a moving spirit in the organization of the Cambridge University Musical Society, a body which is still in existence and which is and has been continued actively in the interest of the best music.

The late Bishop Cridge will be missed sorely by a wide range of people who knew and loved him. Until the end people of all creeds were wont to go to him for his blessing and until the end he lived as near to his ideals as human flesh and blood can ever hope to go. A man of deep powers of reflection, he was more than ordinarily of a spiritual temperament. He was not a brilliant preacher, but his pulpit utterances were so sincere and carried with them such a weight of conviction and such a spirit of truth that his sermons were very effective. It would not be possible to go into details as to the good work accomplished by the late Edward Pacific. His kindly ways, his Christian manhood and his broad-mindedness appealed strongly to people both inside and outside the church. Believers and non-believers alike revered and loved him. His life work was well done and against many odds, surmounting more than the ordinary share of sorrows and disappointments, he kept to the road wherein he believed his duty lay. Great faith sustained him to the close.

INDIANS TO HONOR TO THEIR ANCESTORS

One Day to Be Set Apart Next Week at Annual Potlach to Celebrate Erection of Monument in New Cemetery.

This year the gathering of the different nations of Indians at their rendezvous on the reservation on Esquimalt Harbor will possess more interest than usual, inasmuch as the Songhees tribe will set one day apart for a celebration of the monument which they have raised in their cemetery on the new reserve to the memory of their ancestors, whose remains have been brought from their former resting place to their present graves.

Chief Cooper was found yesterday down by the big Indian houses at Maple Bay, which are being made ready for occupation next week, when the Indians of many a distant tribe are expected. Invitations have been issued to those of the La Conner and Lummi reservations in the Northwest Counties of the State of Washington, to those of Nanaimo, Chemainus, Valdez Island, Cooper Island, Somenos, Quamichan, Komiaken, Cowichan, North, West and South Saanich Klemklemalitch, Sooke, Becher Bay, Nitinat, Clo-oose and other reserves. This gathering will continue all through the next two weeks, and before it is dissolved the Indians will have an opportunity of being present and taking part in the regatta on May 24. But as Chief Cooper said yesterday, one of the great days will be that on which the Songhees Indians show to the other tribes the monument they have raised in their cemetery to their ancestors.

The cemetery lies in a hollow high up behind the village, facing north across Portage Inlet and the Saanich Hills. In the centre is the granite monument brought from Scotland, round which the main drive circles. This is a cross on a column of red granite on a base of grey granite, and bears the inscription: "This monument was erected by the Songhees Tribe to the memory of their departed grandfathers and grandmothers removed here. Erected A. D. 1911."

WOMEN'S WORK UNDER REVIEW

The domestic science in public circles has not touched the domestic problem. Canada needs continuation schools, with technical classes in cooking and sewing open to women.

The National Council recommended the taking of a school census in the Dominion. Mrs. Leathes said that til these recommendations have been settled in New Zealand, where women have the vote. In that country no child under 18 may work, and their mothers are pensioned.

British Columbia reported good work and watchfulness along the lines of committee work.

Moving Pictures.

Montreal reported a large increase in moving picture shows, there being over seventy in that city. Darkened halls are considered a menace to morals. Moving pictures have been shown publicly in the parks of Montreal in the evenings during the Summer. Mrs. Byers, of Sarnia, said that there are 15,000 shows in the United States and four hundred thousand children attend them daily.

The committee on standing committees recomended that there be fourteen committees instead of seventeen as before, with two new committees added.

Miss Ritchie, of Halifax, said that if the local councils were limited to three delegates to the National Council [illegible] be doing away with the burden of expense and would lessen the work of the council. Miss Peters, of St. John, thought doing away with billeting the delegates might solve the problem.

It was decided to limit the standing committees.

The programme for the night session dealt with the subject of compulsory education, which is of especial interest not only to the Province of Québec but also to the Maritime and the Western Provinces, where legislative action has not yet been taken to compel all children to attend school.

An important communication was read from Senator Dandurand, in which he set forth the position of the French-Canadian people. The Province was not indifferent to the matter of education, and they only needed to be assured that compulsory schools would not mean destroy[illegible] in order to appease the prejudices of non-

Home Remedy for Eczema

From our experience as druggists in this community we can recommend, as an absolutely reliable remedy for skin diseases, the D. D. D. Prescription for Eczema, made in the D. D. D. laboratories of Toronto. This is an ideal home remedy, for it has the advantages of being a convenient wash, easy to apply and positively harmless to the most tender skin.

D. D. D. gives instant relief from the irritating itch, it penetrates the pores and reaches the root of the disease immediately. The first bottle will convince you of this.

We advise every skin sufferer to have D. D. D. Prescription always on hand. Of course all druggists sell it—go to them if you can't come to us—but don't accept a big profit substitute.

We have watched the cures effected by D. D. D. and have absolute confidence in this remedy. Let us also tell you about D. D. D. Soap.

NIPPON LINER IN PORT TODAY

Sado Maru Expected to Berth This Afternoon With Oriental Cargo and Many Passengers —Blue Funnel Boat Spoken.

On her thirty-seventh voyage to this port the Nippon Yusen Kaisha liner Sado Maru, Capt. Asakawa, will reach the Outer docks late this afternoon from the Orient.

Wireless messages from the Japanese steamship last night reported that she expected to steam into quarantine in good time to get her pratique from the William Head officials. Advices received by the local agents of the N. Y. K. line state that the Sado Maru has over 500 tons of Oriental cargo for discharge here and approximately 300 Oriental steerage passengers for disembarkation. She will not get away for Puget Sound ports until Thursday morning.

Many saloon and steerage passengers boarded the N. Y. K. liner Awa Maru at this port before she sailed late in the afternoon for ports in the Far East. Among the Victorians leaving aboard the Awa Maru were: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Waddell and son; Mrs. Mary McGregor and daughter; Mrs. Margaret Higgins and Miss May Hattrick. In addition to taking out a large passenger list the Awa had a full cargo.

Protesilaus Nearing Coast

Now rapidly nearing the coast is the Blue Funnel liner Protesilaus. The coast wireless operators are expecting to get in touch with the big vessel early today, and it is probable that she will arrive in port early tomorrow from Liverpool via the Orient. The Protesilaus has 2,200 tons of British and Oriental freight, and 300 Chinese steerage passengers for Victoria; 5,000 tons of cargo for Vancouver and about 3,000 tons for Puget Sound.

Following the Protesilaus in the Holt service is the most popular ship of the fleet, the Keemun, which was dispatched from Liverpool in place of the freighter Teucer. The Keemun has a capacity cargo and is due to reach port on June 6. Captain Conradi is still in command of the Keemun.

Increase in Speed

Equally rapid has been the increase in the speed of ships. There were only eight steamers with a speed exceeding 20 knots twenty-two years ago, a number which had increased to 58 at the end of ten years, and to 108 at the end of twenty-two years. Of the latter number, sixteen steamers exceed 23 knots. Vessels of from 19 to 20 knots have in the twenty-two years increased from 8 to 49, and of 19½ knots from 1 to 34. The turbine has had much to do with the remarkable increase in the past few years. In seven years the number of steamers with speeds exceeding 16 knots has nearly doubled. Steamers of about 15 and 16 knots have multiplied eight, nine and tenfold.

NEWS OF THE CITY

Logger Killed—A fatal accident at a logging camp in the Comox district was the cause of the death of Joseph McGee, well known in this city, the deceased having been for a considerable time in the employ of A. E. Mainwaring clearing land in Cedar district.

Premier Borden Coming—British Columbia will be visited by the Right Hon. R. L. Borden during the Parliament recess this Summer, according to the statement made to the City Council by Mayor Baxter, of Vancouver. His Worship stated that he had extended to the Prime Minister an invitation, and Mr. Borden had accepted, stating that it had been his intention to pay a visit to the Pacific Coast this Summer, and if nothing unforeseen prevented he would do so.

Australian Primate—Most Reverend John Charles Wright, Archbishop of Sidney and Primate of Australia, will be in Victoria about June 11 next, en route from England on his return to Sydney after spending some time in England. The archbishop is regarded as one of the strongest churchmen that has ever been in Australia, and although his entering that field only dates from 1910, the history of the few intervening years has been marked by remarkable advances in church work there.

Missing Man Sought—The secretary of the bureau of Provincial information is in receipt of a letter of inquiry from the agent-general for British Columbia, London, concerning Mr. Thomas Quinn. The last news received from this man by his wife was in October, 1910, to the effect that he was ill in Vancouver, and since then nothing further has been heard. Any information regarding the whereabouts of the above mentioned man would be thankfully received at the bureau of information, Victoria.

Lads Released—In the case of the three youths charged with the theft of tobacco, cigarettes, etc., from an Oak Bay Avenue store, Magistrate Jay gave judgment in the police court yesterday morning. The charge against one lad held had not been sustained. As to the other two who pleaded guilty he decided to allow them their liberty on suspended sentence. His ground for this was that they were young men with most of their life before them. Before they were permitted to leave, however, he had something to say to the boys privately. The interview took place in his office and they were given a very clear outline of the seriousness of their crime and made to understand what persistency in such a course would mean to their careers.

Anglican Church Mourns—"It is with profound sorrow and regret that I have received the news of the death of Bishop Cridge," said Very Rev. Dean Doull, acting head of the diocese of Columbia last evening. "The sympathy of the whole diocese and especially of his old parish of Christ Church goes out to the members of his family who are mourning his loss." At the executive meeting of the Synod held last evening in the Synod office, with the Dean in the chair, the first act of the members was to pass a resolution of appreciation of the great work done by Bishop Cridge and their deep sympathy with the members of his family. The Mayor and Council have signified their intention of attending Bishop Cridge's funeral on Friday in a body.

British Columbia Paper—A Washington dispatch of much interest to British Columbia reads: "The right of print paper made from the wood of the crown lands of British Columbia to enter the United States free of duty under the only operative clause of the Canadian reciprocity agreement is being investigated by the state and treasury department. British Columbia is the only Province from which crown land paper comes. Western wood and paper manufacturers have protested to the Government that the contract regulations between British Columbia and the Powell River Paper Company, which sends the crown lands paper in free, are such as to impose a restraint upon the exportation of lumber and wood pulp. Such restriction would prevent the free entry of lumber, wood pulp and paper from the lands affected."

Tributs to Mr. Burrell—The Ottawa Journal pays the following deserved tributs to British Columbia's representative in the Dominion cabinet. "The charm of his manner, the logical, smooth arrangement of his argument, and in general the finished character of his public utterance, make him just as valuable on the floor or the hustings as he is in his private office administering matters which concern the lives of men in all parts of Canada. He also administers a fruit farm of his own out in British Columbia to very good effect. His executive ability, his eloquence, his views on reciprocity and his general usefulness made him pre-eminently the right man to choose for the portfolio of agriculture in the Borden Cabinet. And Mr. Borden showed himself a good judge of character when he selected Martin Burrell, M. P., for the honorably office and title."

Forest Protection Service—Initial appointments to the staff of the forest fire protection service of the Provincial Government have been made. These appointments are subject to confirmation of the Minister of Lands. Vancouver and Coast district—William Black, forest ranger in charge of district; C. E. Fowler, fire warden for Howe Sound district, with headquarters at Bowen Island; T. W. Lilly, district of Sechelt and Jervis Inlet, headquarters at Pender Harbor, Irwin Post Office; J. A. McGowan, Jervis Inlet to Lund, including coast islands, Powel Lake and Gordon Pasha Lake; W. C. Conant, fire warden for Valdez, Reid and Cortez Islands; John Law, Port Harvey, Turner Island, Craycroft Island, Harwick Island and mainland on Johnston Straits; Walter Brown, Thurlow Island and shore of Vancouver Island, from Rock Bay to Adams River.

Mr. Hall Retiring—Many of his friends in Victoria will be interested in learning that Mr. R. H. Hall, fur trade commissioner for the Hudson's Bay Company, with headquarters at Winnipeg, announces the company has granted his request for retirement and superannuation, and that his active service will terminate at the end of this month. He has been given leave of absence of one year. Mr. Hall joined the company in British Columbia in 1872 and served at various points in this Province until 1891, when he was promoted to be general manager of this territory. In 1901 he was removed to Saskatchewan, and in 1910 he was promoted to the position of fur trade commissioner, with headquarters at Winnipeg. While in British Columbia Mr. Hall was for four years a member of the Provincial Legislature as representative of Cassiar district. Although sixty-three years of age, Mr. Hall is still strong and vigorous.

Civil Servants—At the sixth annual meeting of the Dominion Civil Servants' Association the election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows: President, John R. Greenfield, of Vancouver; vice-presidents, F. R. Greer, Vancouver; W. P. Winsby, Victoria; J. W. McDonald, Victoria. Secretary-treasurer, H. d'A. Birmingham, Vancouver; executive, F. E. Fagan, J. F. Power and J. F. Murray for Vancouver, Rev. A. E. Vert, H. A. Wilson and L. A. Allan for New Westminster; A. J. Dallain, C. Carter, D. McLean and P. Shandling for Victoria. On invitation of the New Westminster delegates it was decided that the next annual meeting be held in New Westminster. Rev. A. E. Vert, chaplain of the New Westminster penitentiary, was appointed delegate from British Columbia to the Civil Service Confederation Convention to be held in Ottawa next November. Mr. J. E. Fagan, chief landing waiter of the customs department, Vancouver, was appointed alternate delegate.

For the Museum—The treasures of the Provincial Museum here have just been supplemented by the addition thereto of a handsome sea lion giant secured by Dr. Newcombe from the Indians of Nootka and promptly dispatched to Director Kermode by that agent of the Government. Dr. Newcombe, besides collecting anthropological and other specimens for the British Columbia Museum, is just at present engaged in a practical as well as scientific study of the character and conduct of the sea lions which from time immemorial have made the rocky inlets off-lying the north end of Vancouver Island their breeding and hauling-out grounds. It has been charged against the sea lions that they are arch-enemies of fish life, and hence the commission of investigation to clear or confirmatively destroy their character. The lion just forwarded to the museum is considerably larger than the best previously secured specimen, being no less than 2,200 lbs. in weight—a veritable monster.

Young People's Annual Meeting—The annual meeting of the Young People's branch of the W. C. T. U. will be held Thursday at 3 p.m. at the residence of Mrs. A. E. Mitchell, 641 Superior Street.

Sewing Meeting—The Ladies' Aid Society of the First Congregational Church will hold a sewing meeting at the Ladies' Parlor in the First Congregational Church this afternoon at 2:30.

NEW LEVIATHAN IS AT HONGKONG

Empress of Russia Will Make Prolonged Stay at Chinese Port—Many Tourists Will Rejoin Ship at Yokohama.

Reaching the Far Eastern end of her transpacific run, the palatial Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Russia, Commander Beetham, steamed into Hongkong harbor yesterday with 380 round-the-world tourists aboard. In order to give the tourists a better opportunity to take in the sights of Singapore, the big leviathan remained over a day longer than her schedule called for and therefore failed to put in at Hongkong on Monday as expected. The Empress of Russia will have a prolonged stay at the Chinese port, the schedule providing for her to stay there sixteen days. Many of the tourists will take passage on inter-coast boats for Japan and will rejoin the huge three-funneled liner at Yokohama. Everybody on board is delighted with the tour and are now looking forward to the last lap of the long voyage and the first glimpse of the British Columbia coastline.

AMUSEMENTS

Nat Goodwin Next Saturday—Nat C. Goodwin will be seen at the Victoria Theatre Saturday evening, May 10, in his famous role of Fagan in Charles Dickens' immortal "Oliver Twist," under the direction of Oliver Morosco. It is doubtful if Mr. Goodwin, during his brilliant career as an actor, has been seen in a role which has given him so ample opportunities to display his rare histrionic abilities. There is probably not another story in literature equal to the one told in "Oliver Twist" of crime-breeding and crime-nurturing wickedness. Every reader of Dickens remembers the lesson in pocket picking Fagan gave to the Artful Dodger, Tom Chitling and Charlie Bates; Bill Sikes' cruelty and Oliver Ewist's sufferings. All these scenes are given a remarkable representation by Mr. Goodwin and his players. The play is in four acts and nine scenes. The dramatic version used is the one made by Comyn Carr and is the same as used at the New Amsterdam Theatre, New York, when Mr. Goodwin appeared in the play there. Permission for the use here was extended through the courtesy of Sir Herbert Beerbohm Tree.

John Drew's Appearance—When John Drew comes to the Victoria Theatre Friday, May 9, he will be seen in "The Perplexed Husband," a witty four act comedy by Alfred Sutro, the famous English dramatist, who came to America this season to stage his latest London success. Mr. Drew's latest vehicle enjoyed continuous support during its presentation at the Empire Theatre, New York, from press and public. It is the most human and delightful play that has been fashioned to his personality in recent years. Mr. Drew is bringing the entire original cast, which includes Mary Boland, Alice John, Hubert Druce, Margaret Watson, Nina Sevening and others.

Crystal Theatre—A complete change of pictures for today and tomorrow in which Pathe's Weekly heads the list. This number will be especially interesting from the fact that it is a flood and cyclone number. It shows all the conditions around Columbus, Ohio, where fifty-nine people were killed and two thousand left without shelter; Dayton, Ohio, where the most terrible catastrophe ever experienced overwhelmed the city by flood and fire; Omaha, Neb., where a terrible tornado devastated this city; other scenes and a comic section are included in this number. This is one of the best weeklies ever shown here. Other pictures are "My Princess," by the Lubin Company, "The Dandy," a Vitagraph comedy; "Sunbeam," a Biograph juvenile drama; "All for a Girl," a Vitagraph comedy. In addition to this big programme in pictures there are amateurs at night, and the closing dates of the present bill of vaudeville. These two acts, both musical and full of comedy, are exceptionally good and you should not fail to see them. In amateurs, Ralph Dinsley, the boy soprano; Miss Cornell, a big favorite; Mr. Ayliffe, a character comedian, and Miss Millar, a wonderful soprano singer from Esquimalt will make up the bill. The first performance on Wednesdays will commence at 6:30. Come early and get good seats.—Paid Advertisement.

New Comedy at Victoria West—The Victoria West Amateur Dramatic Society will bring their season to a close on Thursday and Friday of this week, when a special production of "A Royal Runaway" will be given in the Semple's Hall, Victoria West. This pretty little 3-act comedy by T. L. Marble is new to Victoria, and every effort has been made to make it one of the best this society has staged. Preceding the play the farce, "Borrowed Plumes" will be presented.

Architects Elect Officers—At the annual meeting of the Victoria Chapter of Architects held last evening officers were elected as follows: President, Mr. J. C. M. Keith; vice-president, Mr. Ridgway Wilson; council, Messrs. James Cullin, Butler, Rose and Spurgeon; secretary-treasurer, Mr. N. Reid. The two first-mentioned officials were re-elected. It was shown that the organization has grown in numbers and in influence during the past year, having sixty-two full members, twenty-five associated members, and five student members. That a member is engaged in preparing conditions to govern the competition in the preparation of plans for the new Provincial Royal Jubilee Hospital was one of the announcements made. Another statement of interest was that two members had been appointed a committee to act with the city building inspector in examining applicants for the position of assistant city building inspector. These matters, it was argued, were but a few of the indications of the constantly increasing influence of the body which now included practically every local architect.

NEW FREIGHTER COLUSA ON WAY

Reported to Have Reached South American Coast to Load 1,000 Tons for This Port.

VESSEL HAS HUGE FREIGHT CAPACITY

Expected to Complete Maiden Voyage to Victoria During the Early Part of June—To Make Regular Calls Here.

Fresh from the Clyde shipbuilding yards of Messrs. William Hamilton & Co., of Port Glasgow, the new freight steamer Colusa, recently constructed to the order of W. R. Grace & Co. at a total cost of $450,000, is reported to have reached the South American Coast, and has commenced loading a full cargo of general freight for Victoria and other North Pacific Coast ports. Word has been received by the local agents of the Grace line that the Colusa will have 1,000 tons of cargo for Victoria in addition to heavy shipments for ports on Puget Sound. The accompanying cut reproduced on this page shows the Colusa to be one of the finest types of freighters that has ever been launched from the stocks.

Large Carrying Capacity

She is of 5,100 tons gross register, and her holds are capable of handling approximately 10,000 tons. In conjunction with other vessels of the North Pacific line, the Colusa will be operated regularly from West Coast ports, via Salina Cruz and San Francisco, to Victoria. The new service was recently inaugurated by the steamship Thode Fagelund, which, on her first voyage in the South American and Tehuantepec trade, brought a full cargo and news of great possibilities for trade with Mexico and Chile. The W. R. Grace Company decided to make a strong bid for the Tehuantepec trade following the unsuccessful efforts of other companies, and the placing of the Colusa on this route goes to prove that the big shipping firm intend to give the new route a thorough trial.

Other vessels that Grace & Co. intend to operate on this route are the Tricolor and the Cusco.

After cealing at Cardiff the Colusa left the Welsh port on April 9, and by this time she has probably reached Antofagasta. The greater part of the cargoes loaded by vessels of this line are composed of nitrate from ports on the Chilean Coast. Calls are made at Salina Cruz on the run north for British freight shipped across the Isthmus of Panama by the Tehuantepec railroad.

Among other companies who formerly engaged in this trade are the Canadian-Mexican and Harrison Companies, both of which abandoned the route, declaring that the trade was unprofitable owing to the damaged state of the cargo upon its arrival on this side of the Pacific.

To Arrive in June

With more settled conditions in Mexico, the W. R. Grace Company should be able to operate their boats on a paying basis. The new steamer Colusa is in command of Captain Minster, the well-known skipper who has been to these waters several times as master of the steamer Belle of Spain, and was in command of that vessel when she made the first entrance to Prince Rupert Harbor with rails from New York.

The Colusa is looked for here during the first week in June. The steamer Tricolor, Captain Andersen, of the W. R. Grace fleet, sailed last night from Nanaimo with a full cargo of coal for Alaska. Upon her return she probably will take coal to San Francisco and then proceed to the West Coast to load in the North Pacific service.

ROYAL MAIL OFFICERS

Big British Company Shows Consideration for Its Staff Both Afloat and Ashore

The question of the pay of ship's officers has been a good deal to the fore of late, and in this connection the wages paid to officers of the Royal Mail Packet Company is of more than passing interest.

The historic undertaking over which Sir Owen Philipps presides enjoys a well-deserved reputation for the consideration which it shows to its staff, both afloat and ashore, and we now learn that for some considerable time past it has been alive to the necessity of making the merchant service a popular profession, and so attracting the best type of men to its service. The scale of pay for commanders ranges from £350 for a junior commander to £1,000 per annum in the case of the commodore captain. The pay of officers ranges from £7 per month for the junior fourth officers to £19 for the chief officer, augmented by bonuses for the satisfactory performance of duties. A superannuation fund is also in force, in which the sea staff participate. Fourteen days' annual leave on full pay is allowed, in addition to which officers are relieved of their duties, as far as possible, when the ships are in home ports. The company have at Southampton a club house with bedrooms, dining-rooms, smoking, billiard and recreation rooms, where officers are provided with free accommodation and victualling in addition to their sea pay during the ship's stay in port. Should an officer not desire to take advantage of the club he is entitled to an allowance in lieu thereof. Officers unattached have thus a comfortable home, free of cost, while waiting an appointment to another ship.

The height is in feet and tenths of a foot, above the average level of the lowest low water in each month of the year.

BARK ROWENA REACHES PORT

British Windjammer Completes Long Passage of Sixty-Nine Days Out From Carrizal—Aloha Clears for Australia.

Sixty-nine days out from Carrizal the British bark Rowena, Captain Williams, was towed up the Straits late last night and anchored off Port Townsend pending the return of the tug Lorne, when the Rowena will be towed into the Royal Roads to discharge ballast preparatory to shifting to Vancouver. The big four-masted bark is many days over the usual time made by sailing craft on the run from the West Coast to this port, and there is little doubt that she experienced an extremely rough passage. The Rowena was tacking off the Cape for many hours early yesterday morning in search of a tug to bring her to a safe mooring, and it was not until 2:25 p. m. that she was picked up and passed in at Tatoosh in tow of one of the Puget Sound Towboat Company's tugs.

Schooner Aloha Clears

About 10 a. m. yesterday the tug Lorne left the Royal Roads with the American schooner Aloha in tow for the open sea. The Lorne will return early this morning, and after getting a hawser aboard the Rowena will tow her across to the Roads. The Aloha, Captain Peterson, was outward bound from the Fraser River to Sydney, Australia, with 1,000,000 feet of lumber. She was delayed here several days in signing a new crew of deckhands to replace those who had deserted when the vessel was on the point of sailing. Another sailing vessel that is due to soon put in an appearance at the Cape is the Chilean ship Royal Sovereign, which sailed on February 28 from Valparaiso.

OPIUM FINE MITIGATED

The fine of $2,480 imposed upon Capt. N. Kobayashi, of the steamer Mexico Maru, by the customs authorities as a result of finding 248 five-tael tins of opium on that vessel, which was no, on the manifest when she arrived at Tacoma, has been mitigated by the U. S. Customs Department to $200. In mitigating the fine the department says that it is the first instance of the finding of opium on any of the steamers of that line of vessels, Collector Harper is instructed to collect the fine as mitigated.

INSURANCE ON THE IMPERATOR

Much Trouble Experienced by Hamburg-American Line in Covering the Huge Vessel Against Total Loss.

The recent grounding of the Hamburg-American liner Imperator in the Elbe calls attention to the distribution of insurance on this ocean leviathan.

Since the loss of the Titanic, underwriters have had to be tempted to accept big lines, as they are convinced that much business on the regular fleets has not been profitable for a long time. Consequently the efforts to place the Imperator risk in the market are of interest. The original proposal made to the underwriters was that the value should be about £1,100,000, and that there should be a franchise of 1 per cent. That is to say, underwriters would pay any claims amounting to £11,000 or more. They quoted 5 per cent.

Terms Considered Too High.

These terms were considered too high by the Hamburg-American management, and, though strong efforts were made to induce both London and American underwriters to accept lower rates, there was for a time no yielding. Then the Hamburg insurance companies expressed their willingness to accept lines at 4 per cent. At the same time London underwriters were given to understand that the whole amount which the Hamburg-American Co. had decided to place was about £400,000, though the insured value of the vessel, for average purposes, was to be £1,100,000. But £400,000 was more than the Hamburg insurance companies could swallow, and therefore reinsurances began to be offered in London. The market for a time adamant, began to nibble and to accept lines at the same rate as that paid to the Hamburg companies—4 per cent.

London Places Small Amount.

It is understood that about £140,000 has been placed in London, leaving about £260,000 for the German markets. At the same time a number of underwriters had accepted at lower rates under another contract lines on the whole Hamburg-American fleet, "including new and acquired vessels," against the risks of total loss, general average, and condemnation, so that it was possible to insure in this way a certain proportion of the value of the Imperator without disturbing the market. Contrariwise it was also found possible to effect a certain amount against general average risks at a comparatively low rate. It is easy to understand that as the Hamburg-American Co. had decided not to insure a large proportion of the value of the Imperator the idea of a mutual insurance scheme developed.

STARTS NEW SERVICE IN THREE WEEKS

Steamer Tacoma May Be Operated in Conjunction With Indianapolis and Flyer

Within three weeks the new Seattle-Tacoma flyer, Tacoma, which was launched on Saturday, will be ready to inaugurate a fast schedule between the two Puget Sound ports.

It has not yet been decided by the company whether the Tacoma will run in conjunction with the steamship Indianapolis only or whether the steamship Flyer will be used as a third vessel on the Seattle-Tacoma route.

One suggestion which has found favor with officials of the company is to run her as an exclusive vessel de luxe in conjunction with the Indianapolis and Flyer. Should this idea be adopted a special rate will be charged on the fast trips by the Tacoma and more attention will be given to those who elect to travel by that vessel.

The dimensions of the Tacoma are: Length, 321 feet; beam 30 feet and depth, 10 feet. Power is furnished by two large Ballin boilers and a four-cylinder triple-expansion engine.

Aft on the main deck is a buffet dining salon and there is a large rest room for women at the foot of the main afterstairway. At the foot of the forward stairway is a smoking room extending across the full width of the vessel. The house on the upper deck is carried out flush with the bulwarks, forming a room about 110 feet long and the full width of the vessel. Aft of this is a space open at the back and enclosed on the sides, with portable windows to afford ventilation without draft in Winter and open-air recreation in hot weather. The vessel has accommodation for 1,500 passengers.

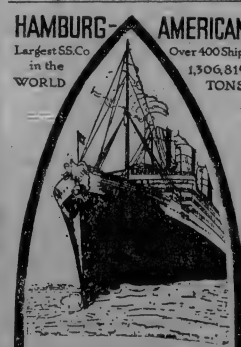

CURACAO NOT DAMAGED

Pacific Coast Vessel Reaches Port After Making Her Regular Calls Southbound

The steamship Curacao of the Pacific Coast Steamship Company's fleet, which was aground for several days on the mud flats near Craig, Fish Egg Island, arrived at Seattle yesterday afternoon with passengers and freight from Southeastern Alaska ports. Apparently little damaged from her experience, the Curacao on being floated continued on her route, making her regular ports of call. The freighter Meteor, which officials of the Pacific Coast Steamship Company had planned to send north in place of the Curacao, was held over to await the arrival of the latter vessel and a minute survey. The Curacao will probably be ready to sail on schedule.

ALD. HOUSTON TERMS INQUIRY A FARCE

Enters Protest Against Board Being Made to "Look Like a Lot of Asses"—Colonist Reporter Questioned.

Emphatic denials by these members of the aldermanic board present at the inquiry that they had in any manner given out information relative to the proceedings of the secret session of the City Council at which the dismissal of City Clerk Dowler was discussed, and the testimony of the reporter of The Colonist who wrote the item giving the result of the Council's deliberations at that meeting, that the information on which he based the item was not given to him directly or indirectly by any member of the board, Mayor or aldermen, comprised the gist of the evidence taken at the investigation commenced last night by the Council with a view of ascertaining how the information of what transpired at that secret session became public. Businesslike methods would have completed the session in a very short time, but constant wrangling between the Mayor and various aldermen on points of procedure, the scope of the inquiry and other details, lengthened the session materially.

The inquiry was initiated upon a resolution of the Council passed on March 17 to the effect that a special committee composed of all the aldermen be appointed to inquire how the proceedings of a secret session of the Council, sitting as a committee on the estimates of expenditure, became public, and how figures of the estimates for the year were also made public.

The Mayor's Threat

At this secret session the question of the dismissal of Mr. Dowler was discussed, the Mayor, at its conclusion, stating to his fellow-members that if any news of the proceedings appeared in the press, he would know it was given out by a member of the board, and he would be forced to suspend the official. The report of the proceedings appeared in The Colonist of the following day, whereupon the Mayor suspended the city clerk, and, in a communication to the Council notifying that body of his action, asserted that his action had been taken because of the "lack of honor" on the part of some aldermen. This allegation was resented by the aldermen, who insisted upon an investigation.

In addition to members of the Council who had been subpoened by the chairman of the committee, Alderman Cuthbert, the other witnesses were Mr. C. H. Lugrin, editor-in-chief of The Colonist, and Mr. J. W. B. Macdougall, reporter on this newspaper. Aldermen McNeill and Humber were absent from the inquiry, the former having been called away on business, but before his departure he made affidavit to the effect that he had in no way given out any information of the proceedings of the Council session in question.

A lengthy discussion arose over the contention of the Mayor that the allegations contained in his letter to the Council charging lack of faith on the part of some alderman did not refer only to the secret session, but to previous meetings of the finance committee held in secret, and at which the Dowler dismissal had been discussed. The Mayor also believed that the inquiry should extend to the subsequent secret meeting of the committee which investigated the Dowler charges, and at which the committee's decision to reinstate the city clerk was arrived at. The decision then reached had also been published the following morning in The Colonist. In fact, His Worship averred, the inquiry should extend over the whole question of the manner in which information on Council matters leaked out.

Denies Jurisdiction

Alderman Cuthbert, chairman of the committee, denied that the committee had any jurisdiction beyond investigating the two matters set forth in the resolution calling for the inquiry, and he crossed swords with Alderman Gleason when the latter suggested that the committee could investigate "any matter it pleases."

Throughout the proceedings, the Mayor, who occupied a seat at the board, though his right to do so was disputed by the chairman, who claimed the aldermen alone had been named as an investigating committee, raised point after point of procedure, and two-thirds of the time of the committee was spent in arguing these points, frequent appeal to the city solicitor being made.

Finally Alderman Cuthbert took the oath and testified to what he had done immediately he departed from the secret meeting at which the Dowler dismissal had been discussed. In company with Aldermen Houston, McNeill and Dilworth, he had partaken of oysters at the New England Hotel. Then he had driven Alderman McNeill to the boat, taken the other two aldermen home and gone home himself. He denied emphatically that he had in any manner given out any information relative to the meeting. As to the private meetings of the finance committee at which the same topic had been discussed Alderman Cuthbert refused to answer beyond stating no information he had thus secured had been given by him to anyone.

Claim Secrecy Preserved

The other aldermen followed Alderman Cuthbert and were equally emphatic in their sworn statements that they had preserved the secrecy of the meetings, both that at which the Dowler dismissal had been discussed and the previous finance meetings.

The Mayor, while disputing Alderman Cuthbert's right to subpoena him as the Mayor, as such, has to sign the subpoenas and he could not subpoena himself, still consented to testify. He knew of no possible way in which the information could have become known unless some alderman told it. He, at that secret meeting, had instructed the janitor to patrol the corridors so that no one should be in a position to overhear the debate.

Alderman Dilworth disclosed under oath the fact that he had paid for the oysters partaken of by himself and Aldermen Cuthbert, Houston and McNeill, but he indignantly denied that he had given out any information, though he admitted that some time afterwards the Mayor had asked him if he was sure Alderman Cuthbert had gone straight home after leaving him (Alderman Dilworth) and Alderman Houston at their homes on the night of the secret meeting. This question of the Mayor's, Alderman Dilworth stated, had led him to believe the Mayor was convinced that Alderman Cuthbert had given out the information.

Alderman Dilworth, during his examination waxed wroth at times at what he declared were insinuations cast by the Mayor and he concluded his testimony by asking "Now, have you any more childish questions?"

Mr. C. H. Lugrin, before being sworn, stated: "I wish to take the objection that this committee is not empowered by the terms of the resolution appointing it to subpoena witnesses or examine them under oath. I do not propose to make any argument but only to state the objection. I am, however, subject to the objection, willing to state under oath or otherwise, what I have to say in regard to the subject matter of the inquiry."

Couldn't Attach Responsibility

Shown the article published in The Colonist purporting to be a report of the proceedings of the secret session of the Council on the question of the Dowler dismissal Mr. Lugrin testified he had not seen it until the morning following the meeting, and had then read it as published in The Colonist. His impression was that Mr. Macdougall had written it. But he did not know whether any member of the Council had given out the information. He had been informed they had not done so. He could not say who had given the reporter the information on which the article was based or who had furnished the copy of the estimates.

Mr. Macdougall, reporter for The Colonist, refused to be sworn on the ground that the committee did not possess the authority to administer the oath. But he was willing to swear that no alderman, directly or indirectly, had supplied him with the information on which the article was based. He was ready to do that in fairness to the aldermen.

Alderman Gleason believed that the Council wanted more than that. They were entitled to know where the information was secured. This the witness refused to state.

Alderman Porter and Dilworth believed the object of the committee was served by the statement of witness, but Mayor Morley demanded that witness be sworn and appealed to the city clerk for confirmation of his claim.

City Solicitor Robertson believed the Mayor was entitled to his desire, but Mr. Lugrin here interposed with the statement that the ground of his objection previously taken was that a committee of the City Council has no authority to compel the attendance of witnesses, or examine them on oath, unless it is specifically authorised to do so in the resolution appointing it, as is the practice in the Legislature.

Aldermen Are Absolved

After further discussion on the point the witness consented to be sworn, and on oath testified that none of the aldermen nor the Mayor had given out any information relative to the proceedings of the secret meeting, the figures of expenditures or the result of the private session of the investigating committee at which the decision to reinstate Mr. Dowler had been reached. Beyond that witness refused to state where or in what manner he had secured the information.

The advisability of terminating the investigation at this point brought forth protest from the Mayor, who declared the absent aldermen should be put on the stand, but Alderman Houston strenuously objected.

"We are looking like a lot of asses," he declared. "This farce ought to end right here. You can rest assured that as long as I am a member of this Council there will be no more investigations for me and no more secret meetings."

Alderman Meston also thought it about time to end the inquiry, and after the Mayor had declared his accusations justified, the session adjourned to meet at the call of the chairman.

MILITARY SCHOOLS LACK CANDIDATES

Careful Inquiry Shows What Appears to Amount to a Crisis in French Army Circles.

PARIS, May 6.—What seems to amount to a crisis in the French army is caused by the lack of candidates at the principal military schools, such as St. Cyr and St. Maixent. Therefore, while additional credits are being asked for to increase the effectiveness of the army, measures will also have to be taken to fill up the ranks of the officers, and just at a time when more officers will be needed, the number of young aspirants seems to be falling off heavily.

This has been pointed out recently by the press, and The Temps goes so far as to call it a grave crisis. Statistics show that there are 1800 vacancies for lieutenants, "chefs de sections," and there are numerous vacancies in the ranks of the re-enlisted non-commissioned officers in more than eighty regiments of infantry.

The number of young aspirants in the military schools is diminishing at an alarming rate. In 1908 there were 1543 candidates for the examination at St. Cyr. In 1912 there were only 880, which shows a falling off of nearly 700 candidates. On the other hand, while in 1908 only 330 were admitted, the number of those accepted in 1912 was higher, amounting to 460, from which it might be inferred that the standard of admission had perhaps to be reduced in order to fill up the army requirements.

At St. Maixent the falling-off in the candidates has been still more remarkable during the last ten years. In 1903 there had been 733 candidates; in 1912 there were only 378. And yet the number of applicants admitted was 240 in 1903 and 250 in 1912, which again raises the query whether the conditions for admission had not been considerably relaxed. In fact, it has been pointed out that in 1912 several candidates had to be received at St. Cyr whose average at the examinations did not exceed seven. Last year the number of vacancies offered to non-commissioned officers at St. Maixent for the colonial army was forty-five, and yet only fifteen candidates presented themselves. A number of expedients had to be resorted to in order to fill these vacancies.

The utilization of dogs for the discovery of wounded on the battlefield has now definitely passed the experimental stage in France. The Minister of War has, in view of the satisfactory results obtained chiefly during the manoeuvres, decided that the field hospital dog shall figure on the mobilization rolls. Training kennels have been established at Fontainebleau, and in time of war each group of stretcher-bearers will have the services of from four to six dogs. Animals belonging to private individuals, as well as to societies for the aid of the wounded, are liable to requisition on mobilization. The demand of the field dog on the regimental kitchen is estimated at one penny per diem.

There are 8,775 voters on the new Skeena list, 1,500 of them being registered at Prince Rupert.

Pair results are being obtained from the Louis Creek placers, although bedrock has not yet been reached.

Majestic Theatre—An excellent programme is on the bill at the Majestic today and Thursday. "The Woe of Battle," a strong spectacular offering, it has some marvellously fine scenes, including a view from inside a fort which is bombarding a passing river steamboat supposed to be loaded with ammunition, and also the final destruction of the fort by fire and an explosion, great volumes of dense smoke being seen rising before the powder goes up. These thrilling scenes are very clearly photographed. "The High Tide of Misfortune," being the tenth series of "What Happened to Mary." "The Stolen Bride," a melodramatic picture. "Analyses of Motion"; this unusual offering gives us pictures of things in motion, a jet of water, a bullet fired from a gun, etc. "The Locust," a glimpse into the life of one of our Summer visitors. "He Had a Guess Coming," farce comedy. "A Horse on Bill," an excellent burlesque that gives unflagging entertainment.—Paid advertisement.

RIVAL CONCERNS IN YUKON

Staking of Claims Within Limits of Boyle Concession by Employees of Yukon Gold

DAWSON, May 5.—Considerable interest is being taken by Yukoners in the staking of placer mining claims within the limits of the Boyle concession, which has recently been done by persons in the employ of the Yukon Gold Company. The concession in question was leased to Boyle in 1900, and along with the leasing of large tracts of placer mining ground to other concessionaries caused great dissatisfaction among the miners. Many claims have at various dates been staked and applied for, no grants having ever been issued.

The applicants now claim that mining claims which existed within the limits of the area, but which have since lapsed, did not revert to the concession, but are drawn lands open for staking. The cases will probably go to the courts.

The Yukon Gold Company's dredges are all lying idle for want of power. At this season of the year their power is usually supplied by the Boyle concessions under somtract, the latter company now claiming that it is not bound to supply power and has cut it off, using it for its own dredges.

Cafe Chantant—A large audience is expected at the Alexandra Club on Thursday, 8th inst., when a clever and interesting programme will be presented. The arrangements are in the hands of a committee including Mrs. Hasell, Mrs. William Roper, Mrs. Devlin, Mrs. H. C. Hanington, which is a criterion for the success of the evening.

W. P. Lynch has been appointed postmaster of Hazelton.

The Real Clowns of Life Are Those Without a Bank Account

To obtain a bank account it is necsesary to save and keep saving, and, when you have saved, to invest your savings to the best advantage in some legitimate investment where money makes money.

The clowns of life are those who always thought it funny to spend every cent they made, and still think it funny that they can never get ahead, AND they will always be funny till they cease to be clowns and save their money to invest and make more money.

Don't be a clown all your life; the clown is always laughed at, but never admired.

Picture a few of the prominent cities in Canada today: Calgary ten years ago was nothing but a side track on the C. P. R. Today it has a population of well over 50,000 people. Edmonton at that time was away out in the woods of the far north; today it is one of the thriving commercial centres of Alberta. Victoria, Vancouver and Prince Rupert were still in their infancy. Calgary and Edmonton were rich in agricultural areas; Victoria and Vancouver had excellent harbor facilities.

ALBERNI

Has untold wealth in agricultural lands, large areas of unequaled timber and one of the finest natural harbors on the Pacific Coast. It is not possible to comprehend with any degree of accuracy the future of a city rich beyond the wildest dreams of avarice in everything that is necessary for the making of a commercial centre.

Two transcontinental railways, the C. P. R. and the Canadian Northern Railway, run into Alberni.

Andrew Carnegie once said: "The big money is made in buying acreage near a growing city." Alberni has a future such as no other city on the Coast, and any person who is wise enough to see the future of this thriving city cannot help but be impressed by the way it has progressed and is progressing.

THE CRAIG-TURNER ACREAGE ADDITION

Is situated on the Stamp River, inside of 3 1-2 miles from the centre of Alberni. This addition is NOT divided into small lots, but consists of Blocks of 2 1-2 to 5 ACRES.

The property slopes gently towards the river, and is suitable for fruit raising, all kinds of mixed farming, dairying, etc.

For a Summer homesite it is ideal. The finest of fishing is obtained off this property. There is a first-class public school less than a mile from the property, with a good road to it. We are selling—we repeat, WE ARE SELLING—this property from

WONDERFUL ISLAND EGG PRODUCTION

Figures for April Nearly Double Those in U. S. and England Per Hen—Cowichan Birds Lead Lightweights.

The figures of the International egg-laying contest for April continue to show what a wonderful climate this is for stimulating egg production. Not only are the heavy weight breeds making records that have never been equalled, but the whole of the pens are nearly doubling in the average egg yield per hen those of similar contests going on simultaneously in the United States and in England.

In a comparison with other contests the following is shown: North American contest, average yield per hen, 47.5; English contest, average yield per hen, 43.8; International (Victoria), 71.7.

The following is the report of Mr. J. R. Terry, the secretary, and of Mr. W. H. Stroyan, the poultryman in charge.

The average price of eggs per dozen during the month has been 30c. Pen temperatures, highest 83 degrees; lowest, 23 degrees; mean, 51 degrees. Rain fell on six days; three days with high winds. Considerable dull weather occurred, the sun shining on only 12 days during the month. Some daily records were made this month, by a pen in each class. Pen 14 laid 7 eggs on the 25th, and Pen 33, Barred Rocks, did even better than this. They laid eight eggs between 6 p. m. on the 11th, and 11 a. m. on the 13th. Two perfect eggs were laid on droppings-board during the night, and six additional were laid before 11 o'clock, the first collecting period. On the 20th they laid 7 eggs, one being found on the droppings board, and on the 24th they again repeated the performance.

Very creditable records were again made in Class 1, the lowest record being 113 eggs. Following were top scorers: Pens 18 and 19, 146; 15, 145; 1 and 16, 141; 4 and 14, 143; 3, 138; 7, 136, and 17, 135. First six pens in Class 1 are: 15, 17, 4, 16, 18 and 14. Broodies: Pens 11 and 30 (1 in each).

In Class 2, leading six pens are: 32, 39, 37, 35, 32 and 38. Top scorers for the month: Pens 39, 152; 31, 146; 32, 144; 33, 134; 35, 126; 24, 120; 37, 115, and 30, 111. Pens 39 and 31 are old rivals, the former being first prize winner last year, and the latter, second. The Reds just beat their last month's record by one egg, thus averaging approximately five eggs per day for the past two months. Broodies: 21, 5; 25, 27, 35, 38 and 40, 4 each; 24, 26, 28, 29, 34, 37, 3 each; 32, 33, 2 each; 23, 30, 33, 36, 39, 1 each. Total, 52 birds.

Record day's production for month, 170 eggs. Total eggs for month, 4,798. During the month, daily (omitting Sundays), each pen has received approximately 1½ lbs. of dandelion leaves, for which they have evinced a great liking.

Total December 2, 1912, to May 2, 1913

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

A Suggestion

Sir,—I was interested, as doubtless most of your other readers were, in the opinions recently expressed by Col. McRae regarding new industries in Victoria. Following this, came the declaration, by a prominent member of the local Board of Trade, that what he desired for Victoria is not only new industries, but a standard wage which would enable workmen to live decently and have enough at the end of each week to lay something aside for a rainy day, or to apply towards securing a home for himself and family. Theoretically this is an admirable suggestion, alright; but to me it seems getting just a little ahead of the procession toward a Greater Victoria. Before starting new industries in Victoria which paid a standard wage—really meaning exclusively white employees—would it not be advisable that steps be taken first to put those industries already here, and many of them possibly owned by members of the Board of Trade, on the same "white" standard system? That, surely, is a more practical idea. It can hardly be expected that any new industry starting up in Victoria would operate under fair conditions as long as those already established here continued to operate with cheap, Oriental labor.

Any one who takes an interest in such matters must know that during the past Winter there have been a great many idle men in Victoria—not transient labor, or "floaters," but really capable, industrious workmen, who either have homes in the making here or who have hopes some day of having such. For the past few months they have been forced to stand idly and helplessly by and watch the procession to or from work of a horde of sleek and well-fed Orientals—Hindus, Chinese and Japanese—each with his lunch pail and a few scraps of wood under his arm with which to cook his own supper, usually on the community plan. To me this had always seemed the most un-British and un-Canadian state of affairs in this truly loyal city.

I am merely an humble, Canadian-born mechanic with about twenty years' residence in Victoria, but during that time I have never patronized an Oriental where "white" assistance could be secured, and when I could not afford to pay a white man for needed help I either sidetracked the job until better days or carried through the work myself to the best of my ability. And there are lots of others of my kind here, also—but not enough of them.

If the "big fellows" in Victoria, with their greater opportunities, proceeded along these lines, Victoria would prove as ideal a home for a lot of deserving white people, who are at present crowded back because of the preference given to the so-called cheap Oriental labor, as it has to a lot of us more-favored mechanics who are in a line of work which does not offer opportunities to the Oriental. And there are a great many more mechanics and workmen on their way, or making preparations for the trip, from the British Isles, to take up a residence in British Columbia, for whom openings, not at present in view, must be provided.

Federal Aid to Highways

Sir:—We have noticed in the editorial columns of The Colonist and Times a controversy regarding the Highway Bill now before the Dominion House.

We would like to suggest to both papers that instead of entering into a controversy on matters such as this in the hope of making some political capital for their respective parties, that the two papers should combine their influence and try to get the best possible treatment for British Columbia. After all, the press of British Columbia is supported by the people of British Columbia and not by political factions at Ottawa, and undoubtedly there are many instances every session where, if they would forget politics and combine forces, British Columbia would benefit greatly, as in the present instance.

Our suggestion is made in the most friendly manner possible, so please Messrs. Times and Colonist get together and have a talk on this Highway Bill, as we are sure that if you will work together on this for British Columbia, that you can secure British Columbia several times the appropriation we may otherwise be offered.

Our Mainland friends and ourselves have worked very hard on this Federal Aid question. During the last two months in particular we have sent many wires and communications to our members and also to the Hon. Mr. Borden and to Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

A division of Federal Aid on a population basis would be most unfair to British Columbia, and we believe that if an offer is made to our Provincial Government on that basis it will be refused with contempt.

Population basis, in round figures, means that for British Columbia to get a hundred thousand dollars, the Dominion would have to vote nearly two million. In other words, that Federal Aid in British Columbia would only amount to one-sixtieth of the grand total of road work done in British Columbia, the other fifty-nine sixtieths being provided by the Provincial Government, and that this would be by far the worst treatment that any Province in Canada would receive. On the other hand, some of the Provincial Governments of the eastern Provinces, if division is made on the population basis, will receive from the Federal Government not less than one-quarter (and we expect even more than that) of their Provincial Government annual expenditure.

No wonder that the population basis of division seems popular in eastern Canada; such a basis will provoke the bitterest hostility in every good roads and automobile association west of Ontario.

We are agreeable to the Federal Aid being divided in any of the following ways:

(1) In proportion to Provincial Government annual expenditure.

(2) The whole to be spent on the Canadian Highway irrespective of Provincial boundaries.

(3) In proportion to the needs and difficulties of each Province as may be decided by the Dominion Cabinet.

There are probably other ways of division that would also be fair; however, any of the three we have just suggested must, we feel confident, appeal to you as being reasonable.

In regard to our second suggestion, "The whole Federal Aid to be spent on Canadian Highway," this road would pass through every Province of Canada, except Prince Edward Island and the Canadian Yukon, and it would be only fair that these two sections should receive some assistance for some of their main roads. As far as the remainder of the money is concerned, we are satisfied that the West would forget Provincial boundary lines if it was devoted entirely to the Canadian Highway, notwithstanding that this would mean the clay belt of northern Ontario undoubtedly receiving the largest appropriation of any single section.

The road users of the Canadian West have been paying into the Dominion Government for many years Customs duties on vehicles, etc., for which we have not received any return, whereas the East has received the benefit of a protective tariff for their industries, and on this point alone it seems to us the West might base a claim for better terms on Federal assistance to highways instead of merely contenting ourselves with asking for equal treatment with the other Provinces.

Trusting that you will receive our suggestions in the friendly spirit intended and thanking you for the space, we are

Yours truly

BANK OF ENGLAND NOTES AT PENNY EACH

For Over Five Minutes "Peddler" Pleads in Vain in London Street—Market Cry Failed to Appeal to Passerby.

LONDON, May 5.—Memories of a very old story are revived by something that was done in the streets of London recently. Most readers have heard of the plate of sovereigns, at a penny apiece, offered for sale some half century ago on London Bridge. Unlike most stories of the kind this happened to be a true one. Two days ago one could get even better value for five-pound notes were offered for sale at a penny each.

It is needless to say that the performance was the result of a bet. The notes were offered in an appealing manner by an amateur peddler in unkempt attire, for periods of about seven minutes each between the hours of 12 and 1 on Saturday afternoon at each of these prominent points: Outside the Grand Hotel, outside the Piccadilly Hotel and at the corner of Tottenham Court Road and Oxford Street.

Unshaven, with a large tweed cap cocked over on one side of his head, wearing a suit displaying an abundance of patches and boots that had seen better days, this extraordinary peddler stood in the gutter with £100 worth of Bank of England notes rustling in his outstretched hand.

"Five pound notes a penny each!" was his market cry as he displayed his "wares" to the best advantage. But people only gazed at him knowingly and passed on.

Wise Ones Refused

"We have seen this sort of thing before," spoke their countenances clearly. Little did these wise passers-by realize that they were refusing to accept a present of £5.

It was exactly midday when the peddler took up his position outside the Grand Hotel. For over five minutes he appealed in vain to people to make a purchase. Presently a well dressed mand and woman came from the direction of the Strand. As they passed the peddler the man exclaimed:

"Look! Here is a man selling five-pound notes at a penny a time, I suppose they are forgeries."

"We'll risk it," said his companion. "It is only a penny."

The man thereupon turned back and asked the peddler if his notes were forgeries and when the peddler replied in the negative he asked for two. But the peddler told him that his sale was limited and could only sell one to each person, and so the buyer contented himself with one note. He crossed over to Cox's Shipping Agency in Charing Cross and there, to his amazement and that of his companion—his wife—received five sovereigns in exxchange for the note he had bought a minute before for a penny.

The speculator was R. Scott-Anderson, Postmaster-General and Superintendent of Telegraphs of British North Borneo, who is staying in this country.

Best Pennyworth

"The best pennyworth I have exer bought in my life," he said on leaving Cox's Bank, "I confess that I scarcely expected to find the note genuine and the clerk who handed over the five pounds simply refused to believe that I had just paid a penny for it."

The other lucky speculator was Frank William Hewitt, a London furrier. He bought the note in front of the Piccadill Hotel.

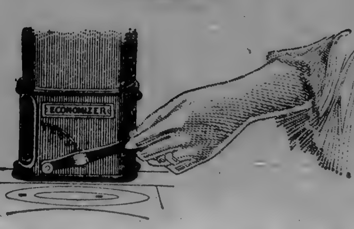

And the mysterious "man with the notes"—who was he?

It is learned that he is Tom Elder Hearn, a well-known variety artist who last week appeared at the London Opera House in his sketch, "The Romance of a Studio."

"The whole thing," he said, "was the result of a wager I had with a friend a day or two back. We had been discussing the story of the man who sold sovereigns on London Bridge and I argued that the British public was one of the most skeptical and unspeculative in the world. I wagered that if I offered genuine £5 Bank of England notes at a penny a time in the streets I could not sell one within twenty minutes.

"My friend took on the wager and my only stipulation was that I should be allowed to disguise myself and stand up where I liked to sell the notes. So I made up as a gutter peddler and went out with £5 notes to the value of £100."

J. D. Anderson is this year planting four thousand more frui ttrees at his large ranch near Nelson.

Control Your Coal Expenditure

In the Gurney-Oxford range you will find more exclusive features, more essential improvements that appeal to the thrifty housewife than have ever before been found in any one kitchen range.

But most important of all is the Economizer.

This clever device for regulating the drafts saves 1 ton of coal in every 6 that you would burn in the ordinary range. It takes the smell of cooking out of the kitchen and sends it up the chimney. You know what that means.

The Economizer enables you to absolutely control the amount of coal you wish to consume and still have a perfect heat for cooking. It will enable you to keep your fire going while you go out shopping or visit your neighbor, and all that is necessary for you to do on your return is to press the small lever and you are assured of a hot fire in a very few moments.

A Gurney-Oxford stove is sanitary—no dirt can accumulate on its beautifully smooth surface.

Its top is polished steel which abolishes forever that dreadful operation—blacking the stove.

Of paramount interest also are the other remarkable and exclusive attachments—the Special Grate, the Divided Flue and the Broiler.

Every woman who knows owns a Gurney-Oxford.

Oatine FACE CREAM

Is the one toilet preparation which acts on the skin in Nature's own way. Oil is vitally necessary to the skin if it is to be kept healthy. Nature is always exuding oil through the skin, to feed it and to keep it soft and pliable, and we are constantly by frequent ablutions with soap (always more or less alkaline) and water, often hard, removing this oil, leaving the skin unfed, harsh and rough. Something is needed to restore the oil that has thus been removed, and Oatine Cream does this as nothing else can. By restoring the oil it keeps the skin soft and smooth and feeds the tissues. Besides this, it gets down into the pores, and removes the dirt and grime embedded there. Keeping the pores clear is the secret of a good complexion and

CRITICAL PERIOD IN SHIPBUILDING

Ottawa, Given an Assurance of Stable Conditions, Is Expected to Soon Grant a Measure of Aid.

Private information from Ottawa is of a character to inspire the belief in well-informed quarters that within a measurable distance of time the shipbuilding industry of Canada will be put on a much improved basis. Indeed, it is the hope that the major portion of the prayer contained in the memorial of the Shipbuilders' Association which was recently submitted to the Government will be granted.

One of the difficulties which those who made representations to the Government, urging action along these lines had to contend with, was the charge that skilled labor employed in the shipyards of Canada was undependable, in the sense that it was fluctuating in respect to quantity and continuity of effort—this being due to a variety of causes. In reply to this it was urged upon the Government that once the men were given the opportunity to better these conditions they would be quick to do so.

Possibly there is no single section in the whole of the Dominion which will so quickly feel the stimulus of a policy of aid to the industry as Victoria and Esquimalt. Here there are all the natural conditions tending to a prompt activity, and the prospect of an improved situation in this regard will no doubt go far towards enlisting the services of the men employed at local yards in doing everything in their power to strengthen the hands of the builders at this critical period in the history of the industry.

FIGURES OUT TIME OF THE REVELATION

Terrorist-Scientist Says Book Is Veiled Description of a Storm and Earthquake—Fixes Time as Year 395.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 6.—Nicholas Morosoff, the terrorist-scientist, has publish a remarkable book on the Revelation of St. John the Divine. Morosoff is a great mathematician and also a teacher of chemistry at a Moscow technical school; and on the basis of astronomical calculations he declares that the whole Book of Revelation is merely a veiled description of a terrific storm and earthquake which overtook Patmos between the afternoon of September 30 and the mid-day of October 1, in the year 395. The figures in the book are merely personifications of elements and of the sun, moon and starts. Morosoff's calculations show that at no time before or after the date mentioned could the heavens have been exactly as they are given in Revelation.

Morosoff worked out this elaborate theory during twenty-four years which he spent in a dungeon of the St. Peter and Paul fortress in St. Petersburg. He was arrested in 1881 after the assassination of Czar Alexander II. of Russia, sentenced to death and then let off with life imprisonment. In 1906 he was released. What part Morosoff took in the plot to assassinate Alexander no one knows, but as he was then a chemistry student, it is assumed that he was connected with the preparation of the bomb.

Kaiser and Men of Letters

Wilhelm II. this year celebrates the twenty-fifth anniversary of his accession to the throne, and hundreds of literary men are compiling books about him. Most have begun by asking permission to dedicate their books to him, and Wilhelm gave some permission. Since then he has been so overwhelmed with requests that he has decided to give no more permissions. In Frankfort a group of literary men proposed that Germany's writers should present Wilhelm II. on his jubilee with an address thanking him for his encouragement of letters during his quarter of a century's reign. Germans of note in literature mostly declined to sign the adress and now the project has been abandoned.

Russians as Writers

Maxim Gorky has published an article dealing with the extraordinary number of uneducated Russians who take to literature in the hope of success. In this they are encouraged by Gorky's own history. Gorky says he is overwhelmed by letters from young writers asking for advice. In one year he read 400 manuscripts. Among the authors were many peasants, also car drivers, railroad men, policemen, soldiers and even women of light character. One such woman wrote to Gorky that she looked upon literature as the one thing destined to save her.

Alsace-Lorraine Against War

STRASSBURG, Germany, May 6.—The Chamber of Deputies unanimously adopted a resolution today requesting the Stadtholder, Count von Wedel, to instruct the Alsace-Lorraine delegates to the Bundesrath to take a decided stand against the idea of war between France and Germany. The delegates will be further instructed to ask the Bundesrath to seek ways and means for a rapprochment between France and Germany, with the object of checking the rivalry in armaments among the European nations.

The Empress This Week—Carrying out all that has been said in advance, a pretentious offering was produced at the Empress this week with Frank Stafford and his company in a novel offering called "A Hunter's Game." Mr. Stafford introduces some of his wonderful whistling and his two wonderful dogs, "Rox" and "Don," two English setters who pose for him. The act is staged with a wealth of natural beauty. The dogs are given credit for everything but talking. New York City is responsible for Al Herman, a blackface comedian who has been convulsing Empress audiences all alon gthe line with his bright monologue and ridiculous make-up. He makes good along the line. Sidney Broughton and Grace Turner, who were respectively members of "The Gypsy," "The Prince of Pilsen" and "The Red Rose" companies, offer a singing and dancing novelty that represents class, and comes up to the standard of an Empress act in this line. Lillian Holmes, a golden-voiced contralto, made her vaudeville debut during last week in Seattle. She is a stunning woman of rare grace and charm and possesses a remarkably sweet and sympathetic voice of mellow quality. A comedian of exceptional cleverness is W. C. Hoefler, who is also a trick bike rider. Between his comedy and trick riding he keeps the audience in an uproar. Twilight pictures start the offerings at the Empress this week. The orchestra is also proving popular.

CITY REPLIES TO CONTRACTORS' ACTION

Appearance Entered by City Solicitor in Suit Recently Brought by the Westholme Lumber Company.

In answer to the action which the Westholme Lumber Company, contractors on the Sooke Lake Development work, instituted following the order of the water commissioner taking over the work on the ground that the company had abandoned it, the city yesterday entered an appearance in the suit and demanded a statement of the claim of the company.

The company's writ was issued against the city and also Water Commissioner Rust, City Comptroller Raymur, Mr. Wynn Meredith, consulting engineer for the city on the Sooke work, and Mr. Boyd Ehle, Mr. Meredith's assistant. In addition, there were added as defendants ex-Mayor Beckwith and ex-Aldermen Anderson and Okell.

At Monday night's meeting of the City Council the city solicitor was instructed to enter an appearance for all defendants except in the case of the three ex-members of the last year's Council, and in their case also if the action of the company is against them in their capacity as members of last year's Council and not against them in their individual capacity. As the status of ex-Mayor Beckwith and ex-Aldermen Anderson and Okell will not be known until the company's statement of claim is filed, City Solicitor Robertson entered an appearance for them, and later, if it is found that they have been named as defendants in their individual capacity, they can obtain their own counsel.

The company, under the court rules, has now twenty-one days within which to file its statement, which will set forth in full its claims against the city.

Stock Markets and Financial News

STOCK MARKET WEAKENS AGAIN

Improvement in European Situation and Restored Confidence Abroad Lost Their Effect in New York.

NEW YORK, May 6.—Under much the same conditions as prevailed yesterday, when stocks moved strongly upward, the market fell back today. The improvement of yesterday was ascribed primarily to easing of the tension in the European political situation and the strength of the foreign markets, but the cheerful tenor of the cable advices and further advances in securities were ignored today. The Harriman stocks were especially heavy, owing to the necessity imposed by the Supreme Court of complying with the dissolution decree by July 1.

There was a general tendency on the part of traders to sell stocks, although the supply seemed to originate chiefly in bear offerings and little opposition was encountered in extending operations for the short account. Prices of American stocks were marked up in London before the opening here, but purchases in this market for foreign account were small. The international stocks were the heaviest in the early trading, but the depression gradually spread over the list, and several of the inactive stocks made new low records for the day. Among the important stocks there were numerous losses of one to three points. Southern Pacific dropped nearly four points to 94¼, U. P. fell 3 points. The local traction stocks were weak.

The outflow of gold was regarded as unfavorable by some bankers, who has expected that the restoration of peace in the Balkans might make it possible to recover some of the gold shipped to Europe.

Bonds irregular, total shares, par value, $1,772,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

GRAIN MARKETS

WINNIPEG, May 6.—Dull trading and weakening prices were the features on the wheat market from start to finish. With the partial settlement of war question in Europe continent markets were on the decline, and some points there were lower quotations. Liverpool closing cables were ⅛ to ⅜ lower and with weak undertone. Continental markets were all lower, Paris ⅛ to 2⅜, Berlin ⅜ to ¼, Budapest 1⅛, Antwerp ¼ to 1⅛. American markets opened ⅝ to ¼ lower and dropped considerably later. Minneapolis opened ¼ lower. Chicago opened ⅛ to ⅜ lower and closed 1⅜ lower. The cash demand for all grades of wheat was poor, and now that navigation is open receipts are heavier and there are more liberal offerings on the market.

Cash prices closed 1 down for practically all grades except feed, which dropped 2 cents.

Monday's inspections totalled 897 cars and in sight Tuesday were 450. Deliveries through the clearing house today were wheat 108,000 bushels, oats 114,000 bushels, flax 57,000 bushels.

MONTREAL STOCKS

MONTREAL, May 6.—A sharp decline in Brazilian, showing a net loss at the close of 3½ points, as compared with the last sale yesterday, and a downward trend in C. P. R. characterized the local market today. The announcement in London of an issue of $10,000,000 of 6 per cent preferred stock by Brazilian Traction was responsible for the decline in this issue, causing somewhat of a disappointment to the holders of the common stock. The stock opened ⅜ under yesterday's close, and closed at 92¾. C. P. R. opened with a gain of 1¼ points at 243 here on firmer London cables, where it reached as high as 244 before the local market opened, due to the impression that the European crisis was almost entirely a thing of the past. Heaviness in New York also contributed to the local reaction. The afternoon opening was at 241½ and the last sale at 241, a net loss of 2¼ points on the day. Power opened even at 227½ and last sale was at 227½. Canadian Cottons were ¼ off. Textile was easier at 88¾ after opening at 89¼. Toronto Railway gained ¼, closing at 144, and Richelieu held around 114. Total sales 1,400 shares, including banks, 780 mining shares, $16,060 bonds and debentures.

LONDON EXCHANGE

LONDON, May 6.—Money was in good demand today for repayment to the Bank of England. Discount rates were steady. The improvement in the Balkan situation imparted further confidence on the stock exchange during the forenoon, when business expanded. Investors bought gilt-edged stocks more freely, speculative trading broadened, and copper shares were buoyant, but the market failed to maintain its strength and closed easy under realizing.

Montenegro bonds closed 3 points higher, but consols lost most all of their early advance. The exports of gold from New York restricted business. Later the market declined under the leadership of Union Pacific and Southern Pacific.

The closing was easy.

A DISEASE THAT DEVELOPS UNSUSPECTED

Many People Are Afflicted With Kidney Disease Before They Have Any Idea Anything Is Wrong

No wonder doctors consider kidney disease one to be most dreaded. It most often attacks without any particular previous warning. This puts a watchful care of the kidneys right up to every individual.

Dr. Loomis, the great specialist on kidney diseases, says, "There is not one person in twenty-five at forty years of age who has healthy kidneys." This information gives one a shock. Who can claim offhand to be one of the lucky four in every hundred?

This condition imposes upon everyone the necessity for occasional self-examination—say every two or three months. Thousands, of course, must have kidney trouble right now without knowing it. You should make a test and if you find your kidneys are diseased there is not a moment to lose. You should begin at once to take Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure, with a reputation of thirty-five years in the successful treatment of Kidney, Liver and Bladder troubles.

All leading druggists sell Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure as well as all the other well-known Warner Remedies—the Diabetes Cure, the Nervine, the Rheumatism Cure, Asthma Cure and the Safe Pills. Write for free sample specifying the remedy desired to Warner's Safe Remedies Co., Dept. 425, Toronto, Ont.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Game Warden's Launch.

SEALED TENDERS, superscribed "Tender for Motor Launch," will be received by the Hon. the Minister of Public Works up to 12 o'clock noon on Monday, 12th May, 1913, for the construction of one 45-foot seagoing launch.

Plans, specifications, contract and forms of tender may be seen at the offices of the Government Agents at Vancouver and New Westminster, and the Department of Public Works, Victoria.

Intending tenderers by applying to the undersigned can obtain a copy of the plans and specifications for the sum of twenty-five dollars ($25), which will be refunded on their return in good order.

Each proposal must be accompanied by an accepted bank cheque or certificate of deposit on a chartered bank of Canada, made payable to the Hon. the Minister of Public Works, for a sum equivalent to 10 per cent of the amount of the tender, which shall be forfeited if the party tendering decline to enter into contract when called upon to do so, or if he fail to complete the work contracted for. The cheques or certificates of deposit of unsuccessful tenderers will be returned to them upon the execution of the contract.

Tenders will not be considered unless made out on the forms supplied, signed by the actual signature of the tenderer, and enclosed in the envelopes furnished.

Intending tenderers to state the date of completion in their tender.

The lowest or any tender will not necessarily accepted.

VICTORIA TRANSFER COMPANY

Horses for Sale

We have horses of all classes for sale and are ready at all times to exhibit such to intending purchasers. It will pay you to see us before purchasing.

Harness for Sale

We have new and second-hand sets—double and single—for sale at reasonable rates. Farmers should see these, as they are suitable for light driving.

Cabs

Do you know that our Glass Front Carriages are at your disposal at $2.00 per hour?

Victorias

If you wish, we can furnish a Victoria at $2.50 per hour. These vehicles accommodate three persons, and are most suitable for ladies doing afternoon calling.

Livery

Better Single or Double Traps cannot be found on the Pacific Coast. Single Horse and Trap—Morning, $2.50; Afternoon, $3.00.

Boarders

We board your horse, look after your trap and harness—Per month, $25.00. Our object is to please our patrons. We are responsible to them as to safety and damage done to furniture or goods. Our drivers, we believe, are civil and careful, and seldom knowingly overcharge. If by any chance a mistake occurs, come to the office or notify us at once. In other words, give us an opportunity to put right anything that displeases you.

Teams

We are prepared to supply teams for half a day at $5.00, excepting Saturdays, Sundays and holidays, when the charge will be, half a day, $7.50. For long distance, the office will furnish particulars.

Furniture Trucks

Furniture moving is an important undertaking. We have men who do nothing else. Our charges are, by the hour, $1.50. With an extra man to help, the charges will be increased to $2.00 per hour.

Baggage and Express

In this department prompt delivery is the important factor. If you are catching a steamer or train, you like to know that your luggage or packages will be at the wharf or station in good time to depart with you. What is more annoying than searching for your belongings a minute before your steamer sails or your train pulls out? This is offset by our claim checks. Our drivers check your baggage at your residence. You present the claim check to the baggage master—show your ticket—he then gives you the railway or steamer check, and that is all. You then go on your way rejoicing. If we cannot attend to your order we will tell you and thus avoid suspense.

Express and General Drayage

We have thirty-seven Express and Delivery Wagons. For the use of these we make a charge of—per hour, $1.00.

50 Man and Hand-Tailored Suits Selling Today at $18.75 for $25.00 Values

EVERY suit in this lot is a real bargain, because these suits are exactly the same as we are selling in our regular stock at $25.00; only this is a little clean-up lot made from short ends of material, and therefore cannot be sold by the manufacturers as regular stock goods, as all sizes are not included.

We cannot repeat any of these lines at this price, and if you are fortunate in finding your size here, you are sure of a suit that will give you every satisfaction.

There are blue and black serges, black and white checks, tan, greys and stripe mixtures to choose from, in smart tailored styles, with square cut coats with rounding corners, and also the cutaway effects. Side pleated or plain tailored skirts selling today at $18.75.

A WARNING!

It has come to our knowledge that certain individuals are going from house-to-house in this city, selling Fashion Books, and making the false statement that "The patterns can be obtained from David Spencer, Ltd."

We repudiate that statement, and wish it to be known that we sell only "The Ladies' Home Journal Patterns."
